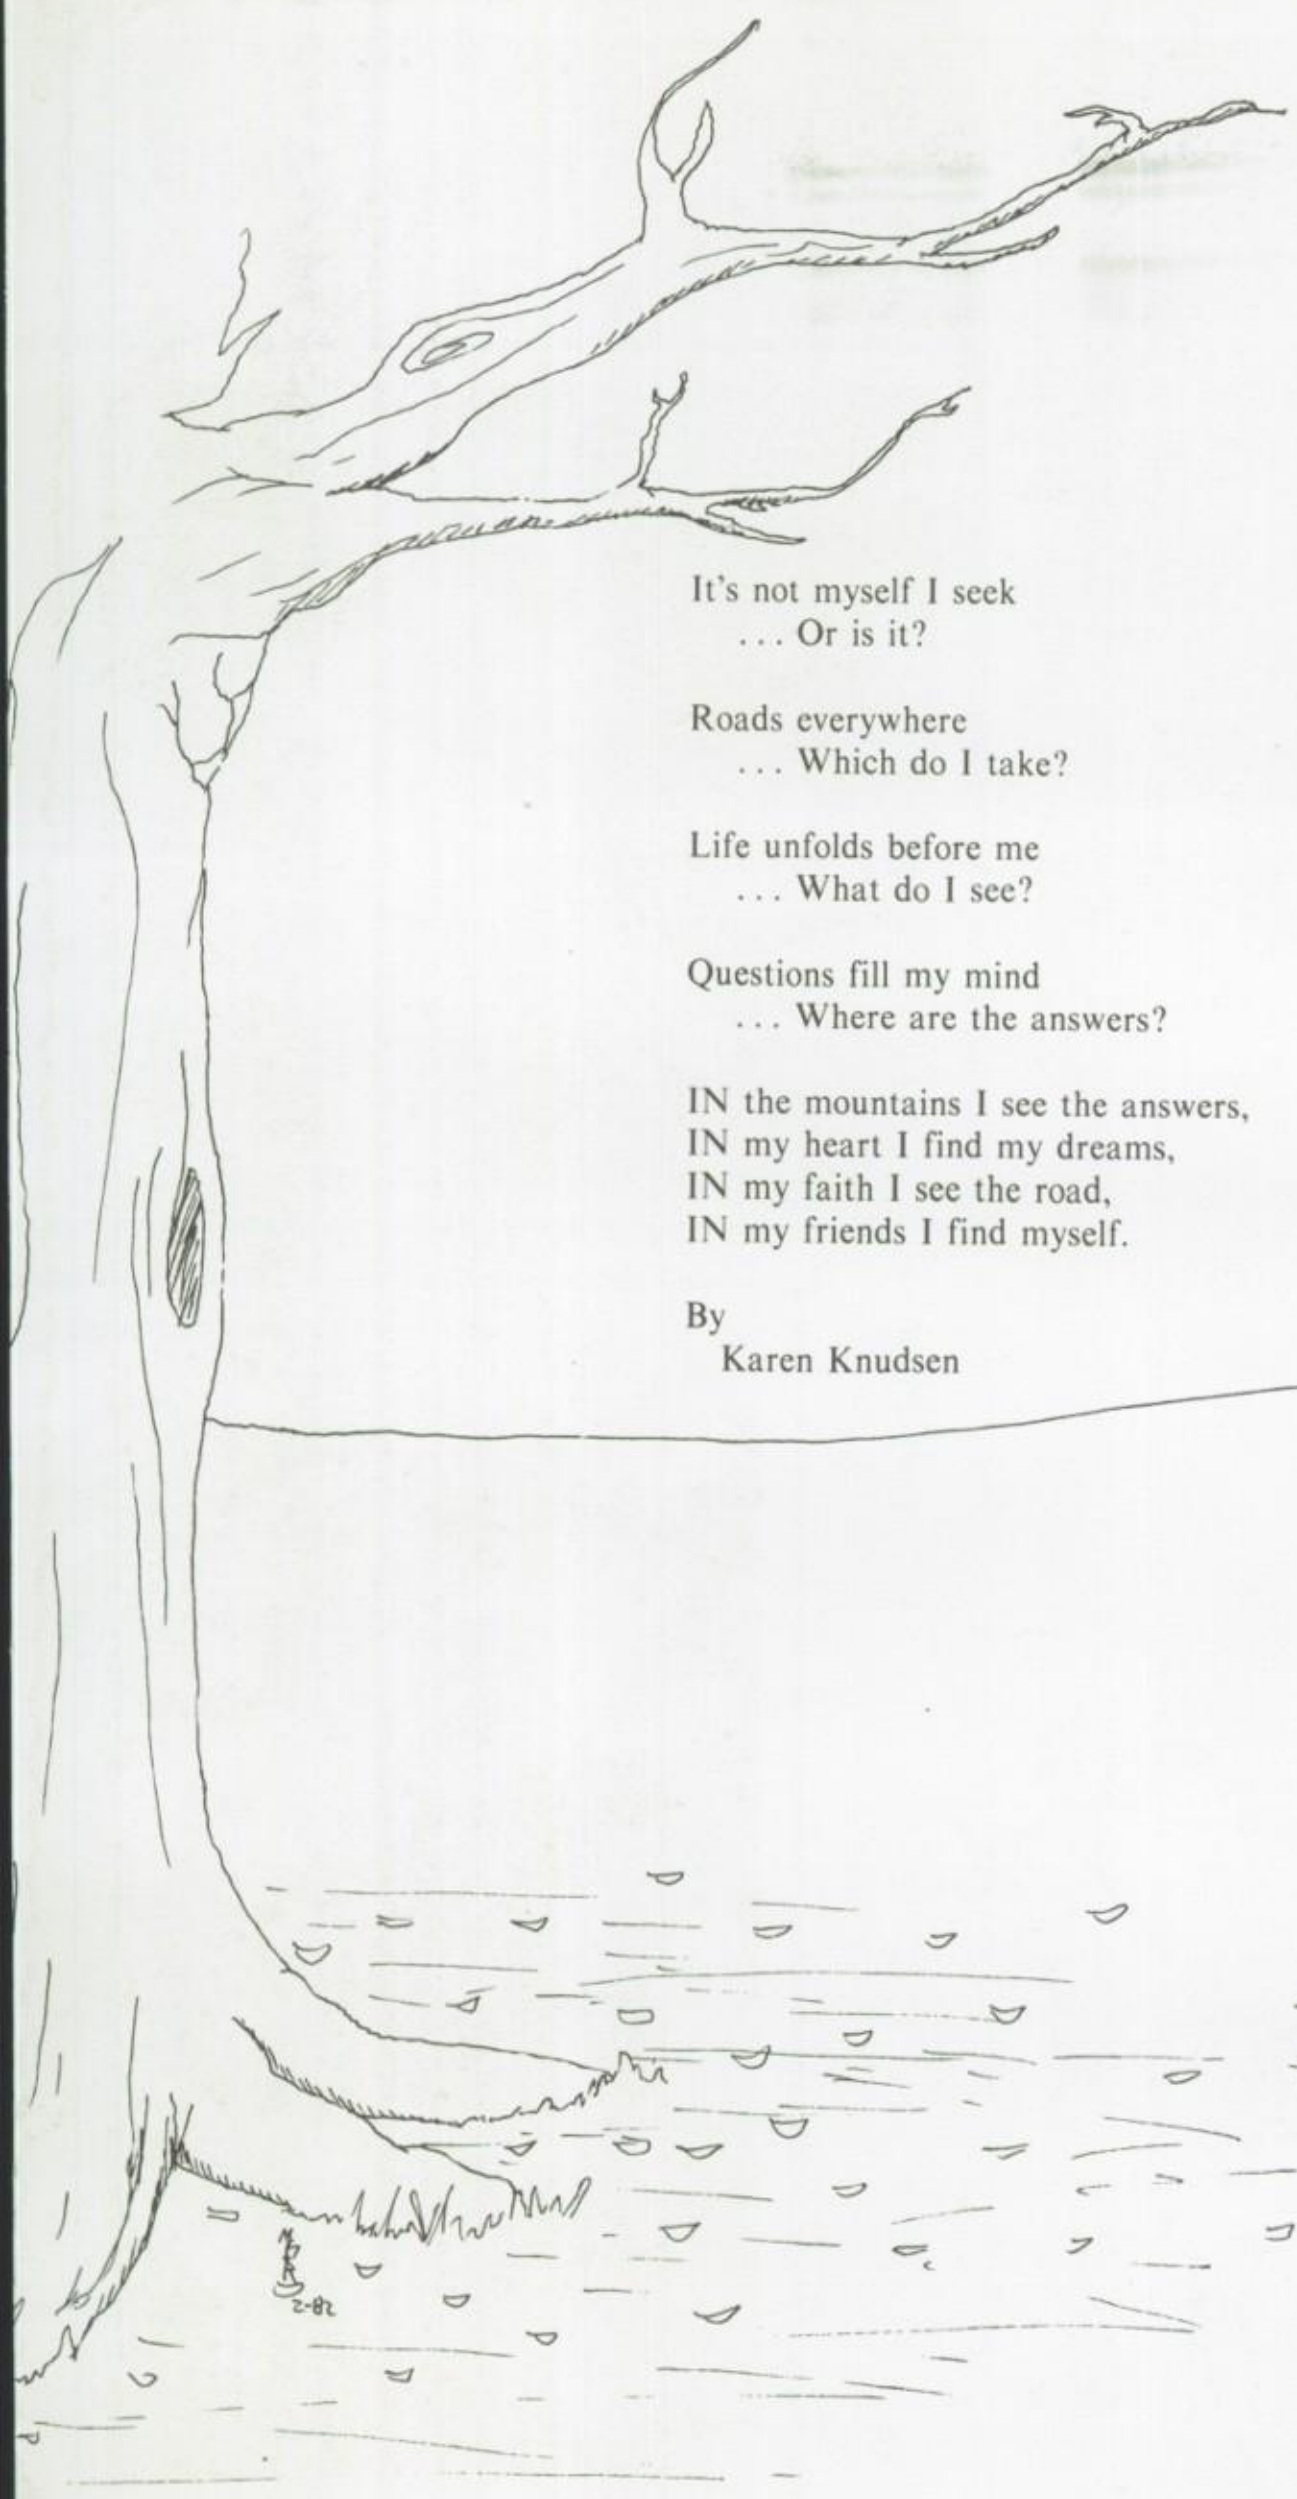
The Senior Class of 1982 chose eighteen of its members as the most outstanding in nine different categories. Those range from the "Most Spirited" to the "Most Likely to Succeed" and fittingly depict the variety of personalities that make the Graduating Class what is is — truly unique and special. So here they are — the Cream of the Crop of '82;

(1) Most Spirited — Lori Chavarria and Jim Relph
(2) Most Outgoing — Cheryl Vandenberg and Bill Gore
(3) Friendliest — Judy England and Gary Peloso
(4) Most Athletic — Denise Calcagno and Steve Kmetko
(5) Best Looking — Jenny Kerber and Tom Fitzmaurice
(6) Best Eyes — Carole Bresnahan and John Berlin
(7) Best Personality — Debbie DeJulia and Tom Knudsen
(8) Class Comedians — Julie Henzerling and Neil Bourque
(9) Most Likely To Succeed — Julie Allen and Greg Turner



It's not myself I seek
. . . Or is it?

Roads everywhere
. . . Which do I take?

Life unfolds before me
. . . What do I see?

Questions fill my mind
. . . Where are the answers?

IN the mountains I see the answers,
IN my heart I find my dreams,
IN my faith I see the road,
IN my friends I find myself.

Spooks on

Halloween, a day of fun and frolic, is a time for building spirit. Here at Gerard there is a constant battle between each class as to which one shows the most spirit. As you can see some students are better at it than others.

Homecoming '81

The theme for this year's Homecoming was "Roman Days." Homecoming week consisted of a different theme for each day. The competition between class floats was the cause of late nights and endless flower parties. The week ended in a rousing win over Bourgade (10-0) on our home field and the crowning of King Walter Sikora and Queen Judy England at the dance. Homecoming '81 was a special event.

This year's Coronation Dance was held on February 20. Sponsored by the Senior Class, it was a Sadie Hawkins event. Held at St. Thomas Moore Hall, the organization was commendable. One of the most exciting events of the evening was the crowning of King Warren Hahn and Queen Teresa Sweeney. It was a very joyous occasion for all who attended.

COLLEGE

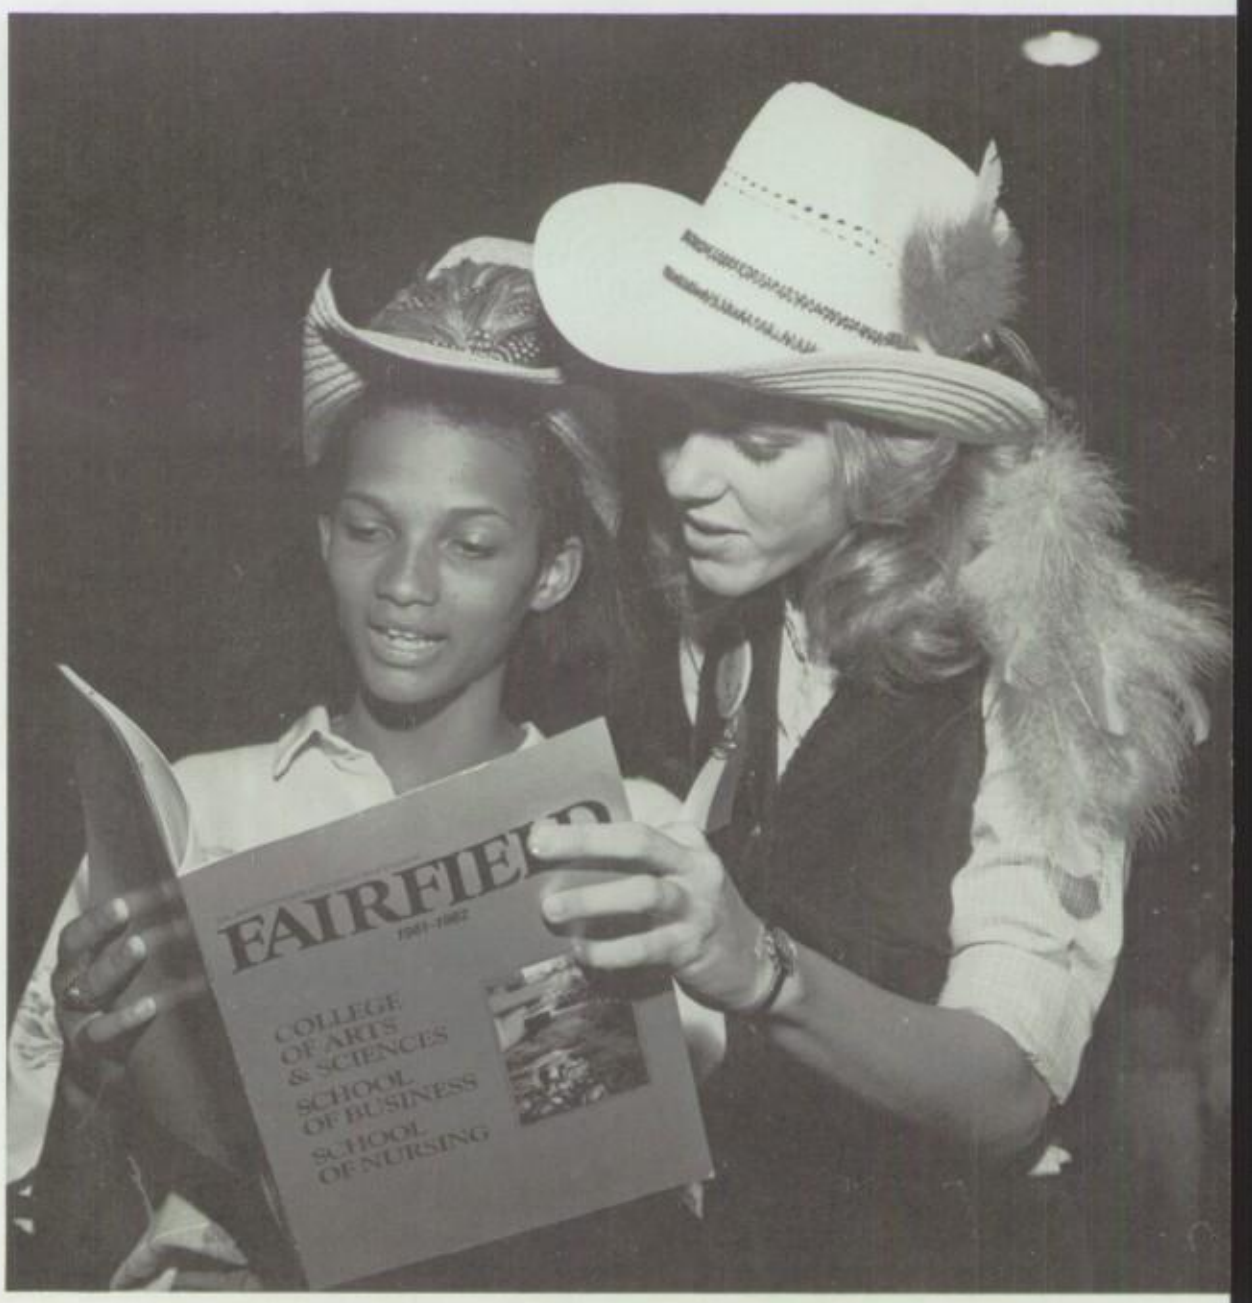
College Day was a day for many Juniors and Seniors to look at a great variety of colleges and see what they had to offer. The colleges were from many different parts of the country. Some of those represented included, Regis College from Colorado, St. Mary's College, Holy Names, and Thomas Aquinas College from California.

There were also colleges which represented Arizona such as Arizona State, Grand Canyon College, Phoenix College and Scottsdale Community College. Many of the Juniors and Seniors were able to decide which college would suit their needs.



1) Hmm, this one looks good. 2) You see girls, this college has so many things you can use. 3) What does this college have to offer me? 4) Bridget and Susan consider their futures. 5) People gather to see what this college has to exhibit? 6) Picking a college can be fun as well as serious. 7) "No hablo Ingles." 8) Is this college co-ed?

This year's MDA Dance-a-thon was another successful one. Almost 100 students participated and over $4,400 was raised to help the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The money will be used to send about 125 children to camp this summer. Participants danced from noon to midnight. Short breaks were given every hour as well as at lunch and dinner.

Newsman Ken Koy, from Channel 5, made a guest appearance to play "Simon Says" with the dancers. Radio Roy, a volunteer radio disc jockey, played music the entire twelve hours and helped keep the dancers on their toes. Denise Calcagno was the Chairman of the MDA Dance-a-thon and worked very hard in making this year's MDA Super Dance a success.

Gerard's 20th Anniversry Celebration.

A very big event this year was our 20th Anniversary. This was a joyous occasion. It started off with a Mass on the field celebrated by His Excellency Bishop O'Brien. After the Mass and during the course of the afternoon special preformances by the Drama Club, Band, Advanced Spanish and Pom and Cheer were held. Various booths and exhibits around the school included the Science Department, Yearbook, Newspaper and the Chess Club, Balloons were passed out by Drama members. A lot of hard work and careful planning went into the Anniversary celebration — from the clean up efforts of the Juniors to the detailed decoration of the refreshment table by the Mothers' Club. This event was a complete success, and we look forward to the next twenty years.

PROM '82

The 1981-82 Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Thunderbird Country Club. Its theme, "An Evening by the Ocean," was impressively portrayed through the decorations and the sailor outfits worn by the hostesses from the Sophomore Class — Donna Erhard, Kelly Gramm, Courtney James, Lara Rodriguez, Christa Roughan and Jenny Sanders. It was well attended and the performance of the group "Tilt" was excellent.

As I stand at today's door, I'm looking out as you look in,
I have so much to tell you.
As the door slowly inches shut, I'm rushed for words to say.
So many memories race through my mind.
The times we've shared.
We've shared so many dreams.
We became friends in such a short time, too short of time.
I have so much to tell you,
But the door doesn't permit it as it gets closer to the latch.
I'm at a loss for words.
I have so many feelings to express.
I can say only a little of what I feel.
Why have I waited so long?
Why didn't I tell you sooner, before I was rushed for time?
The door softly closes and locks us apart forever.
As I stand there, looking at the dark emptiness of the door,
I wonder, did you know how I felt?
Did you know that I loved you?

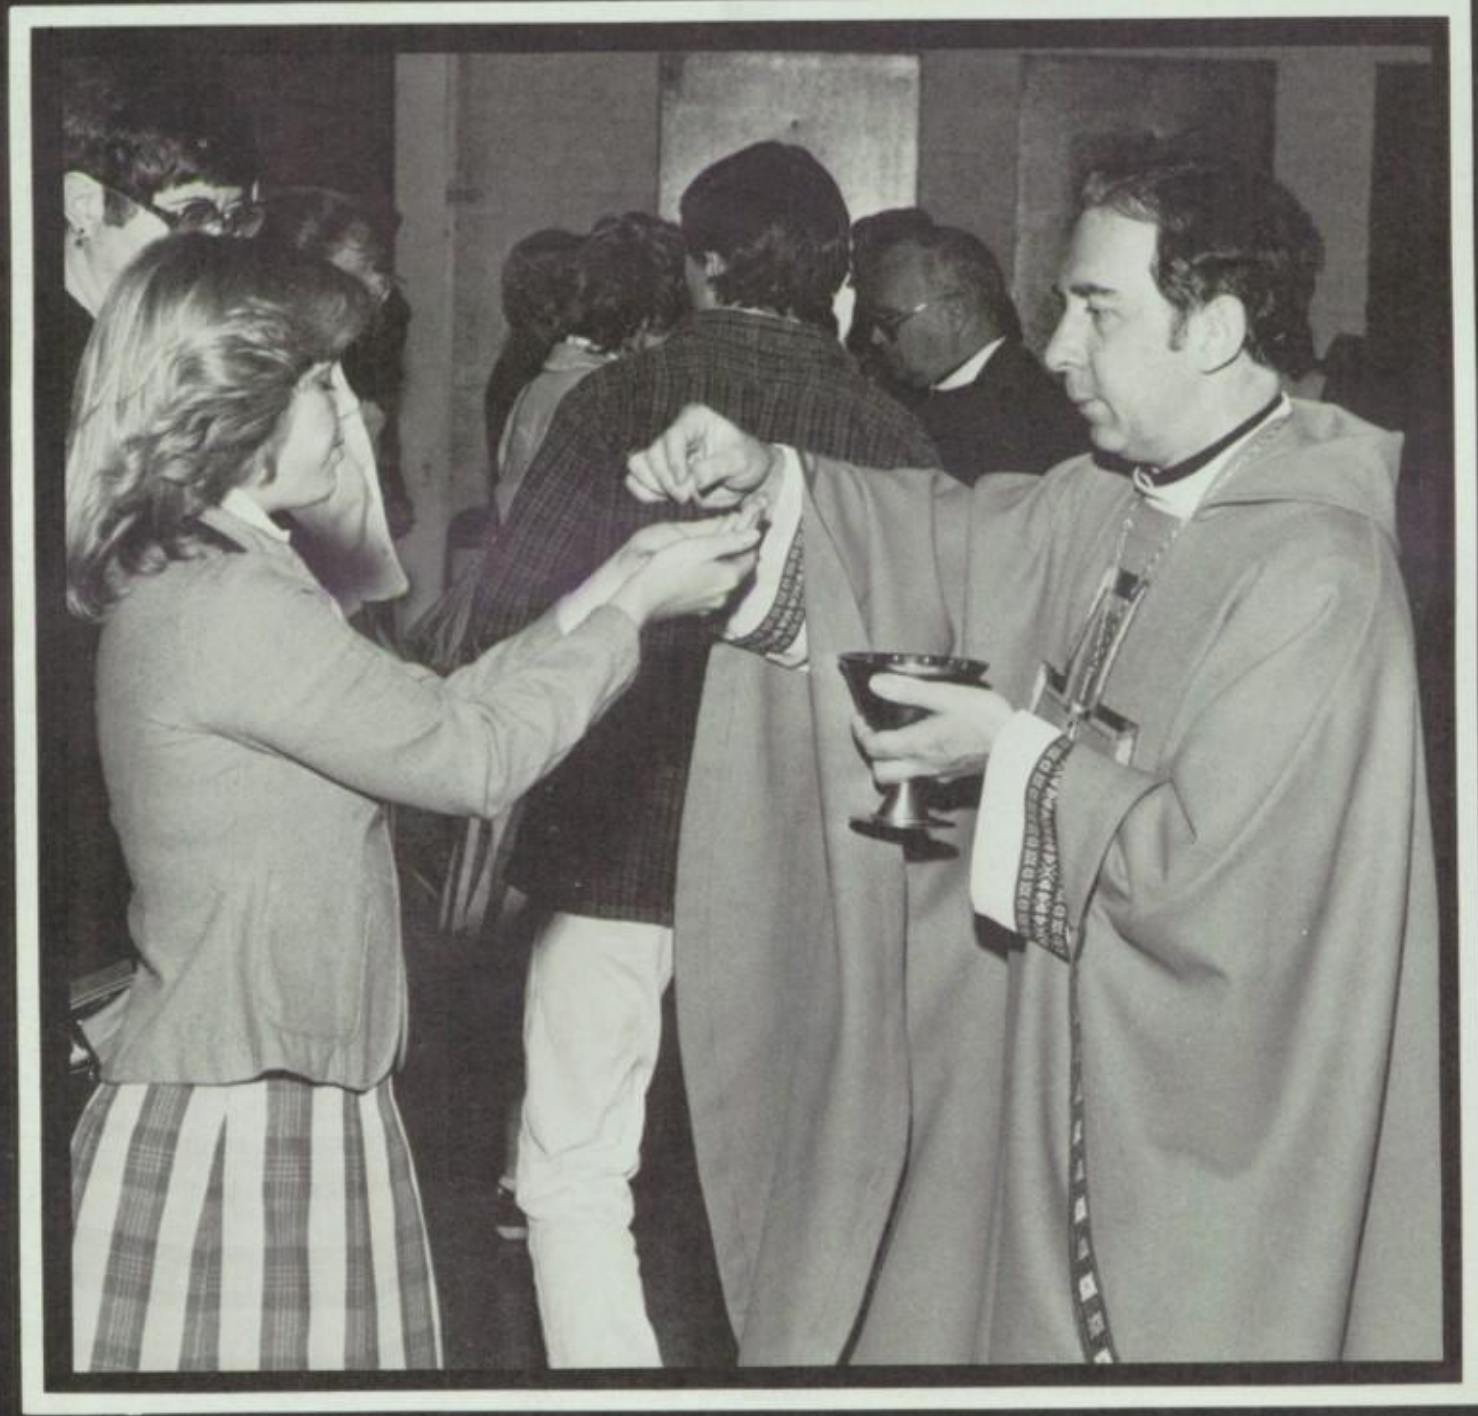
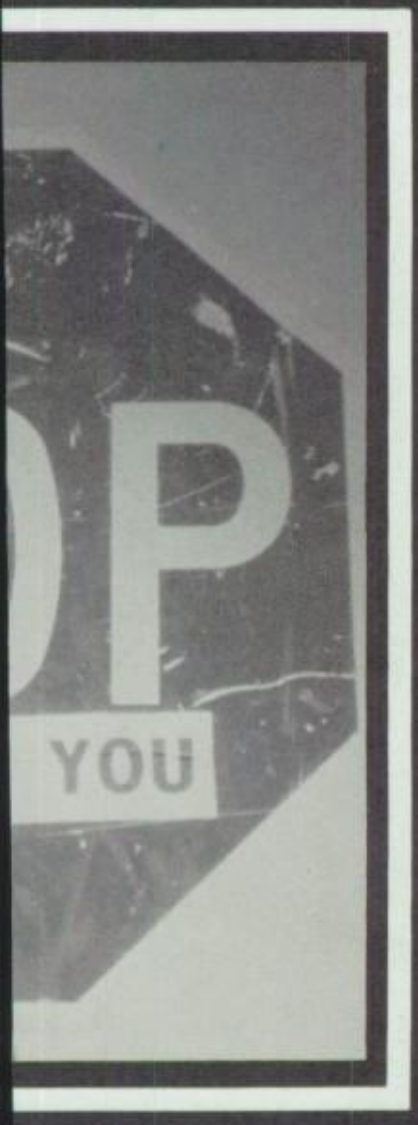
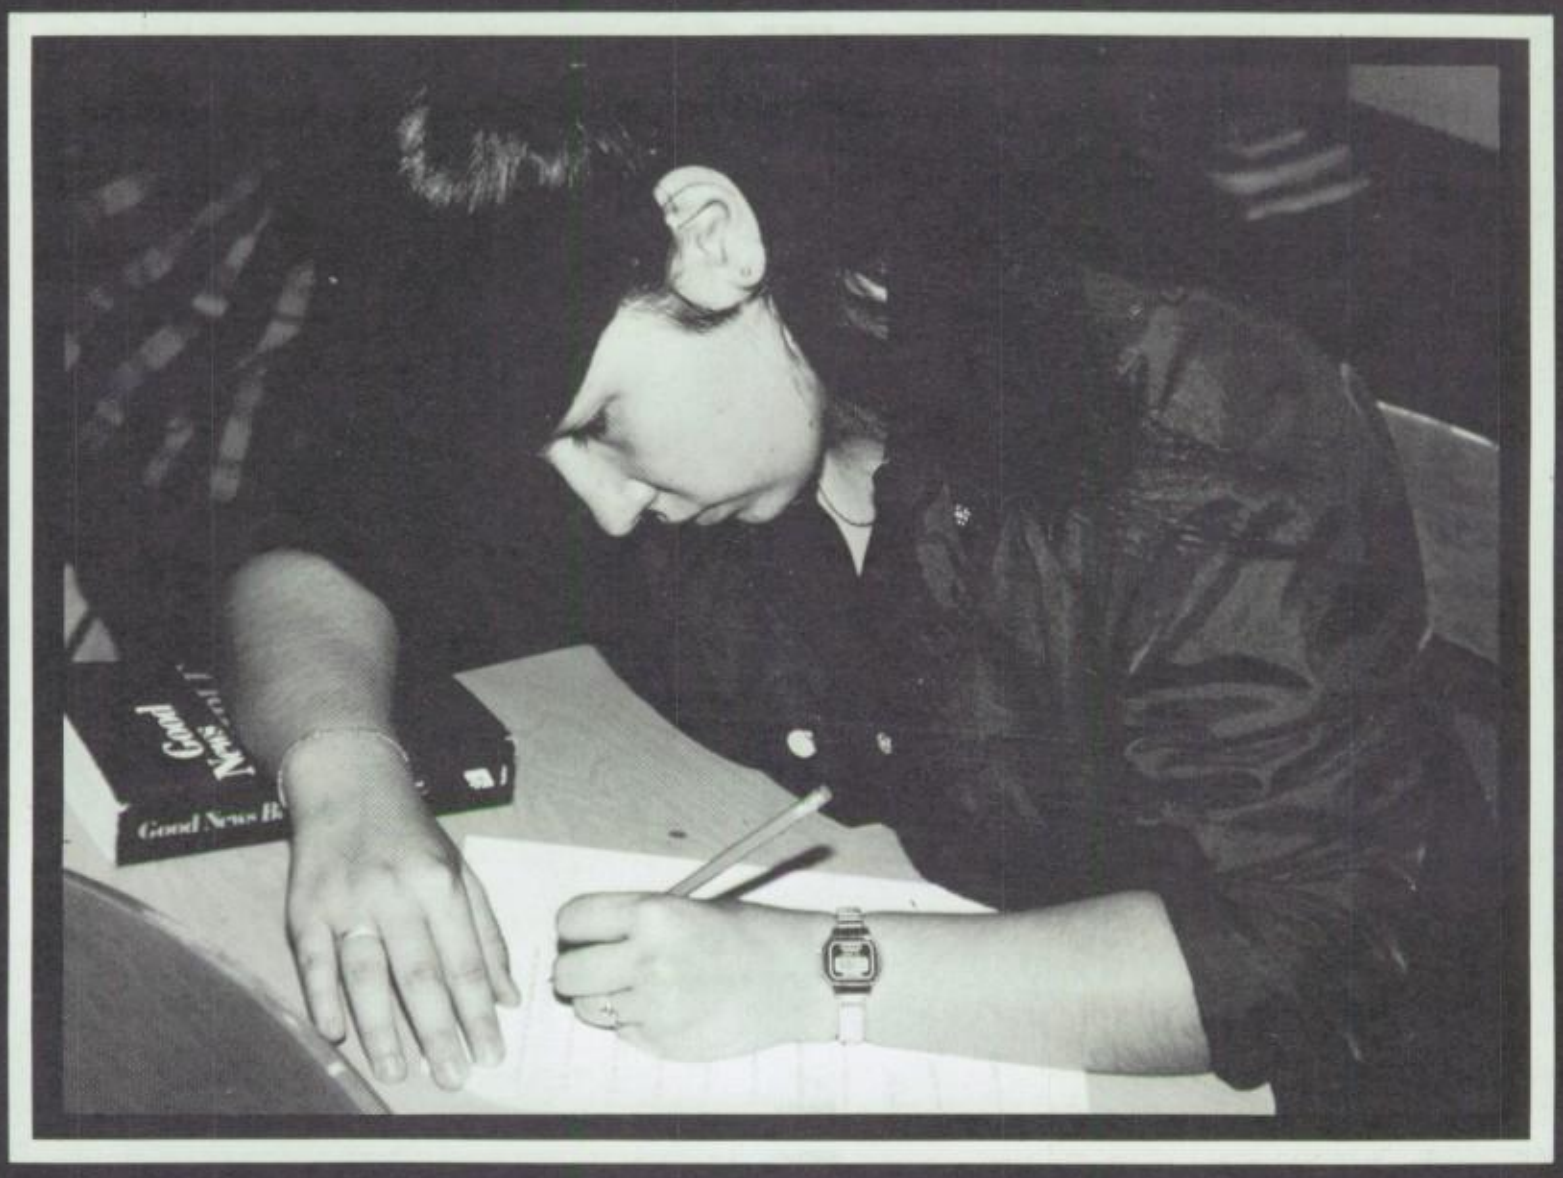
GOD





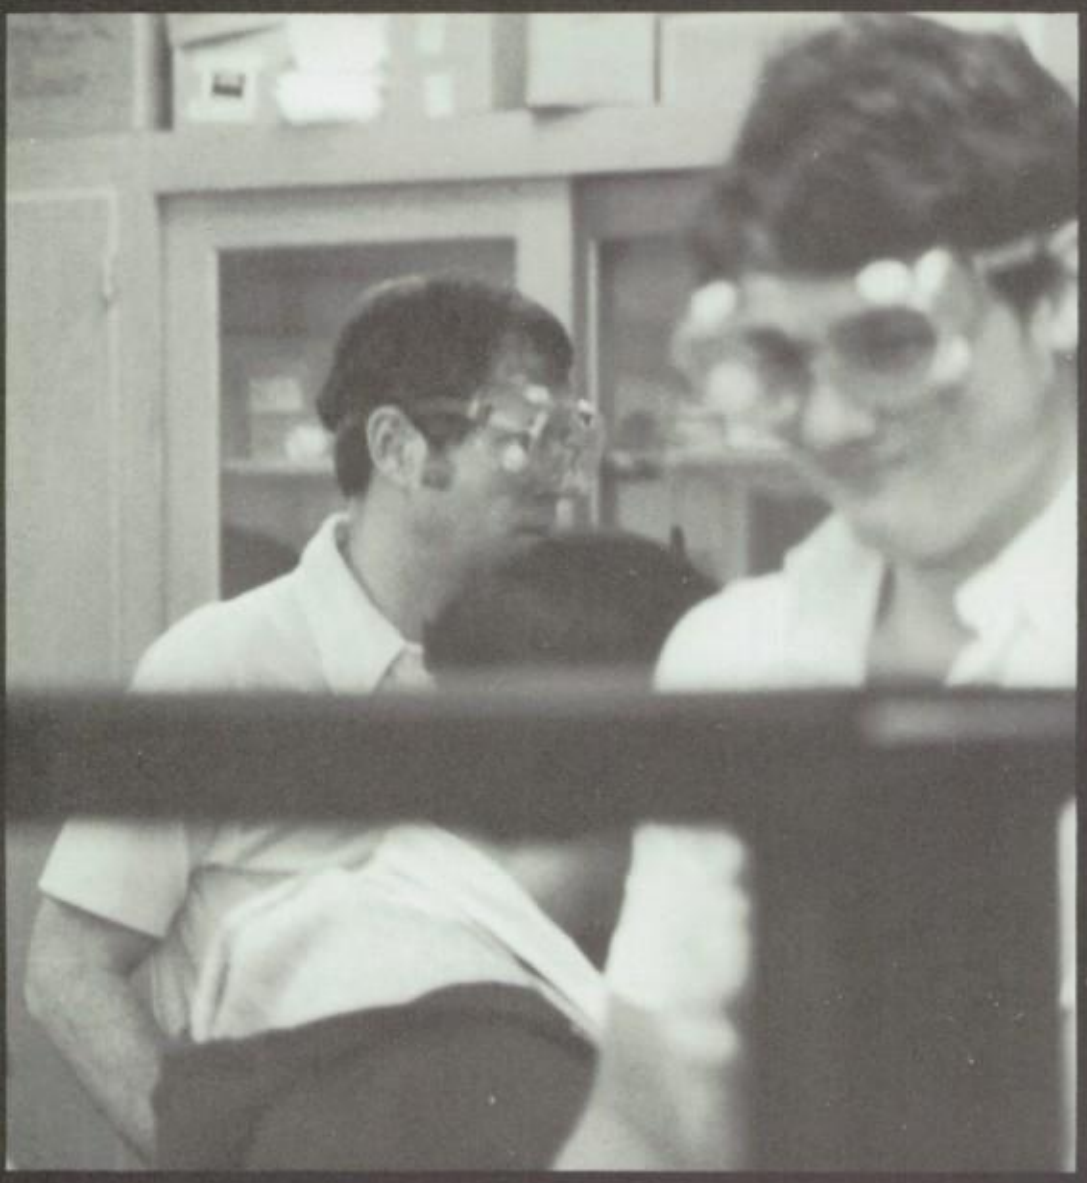


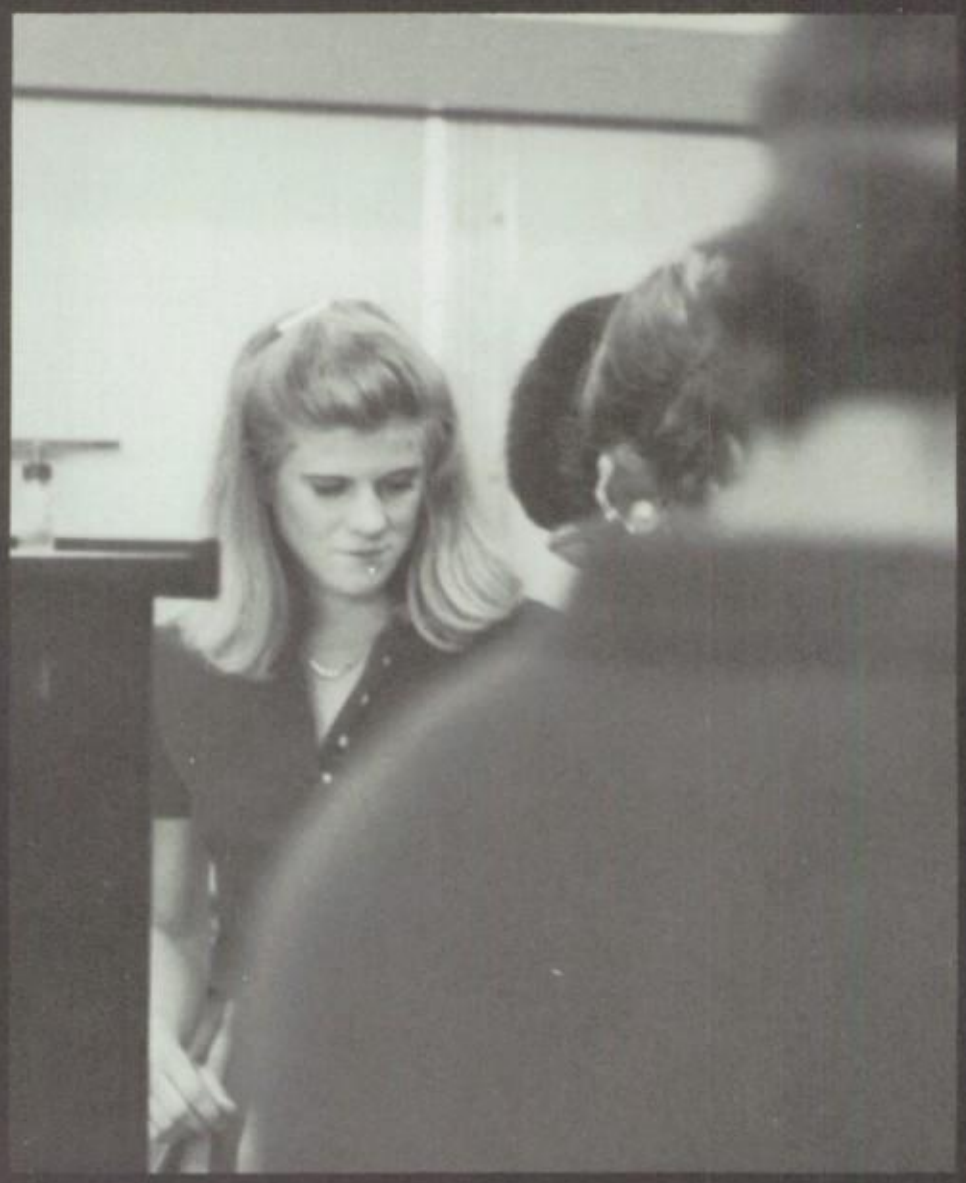
The Religion Department is using new learning techniques to teach students about their religious beliefs. It also tries to strengthen them to face their life ahead.

During the year there are Masses attended by each Religion class once a week. This is done to stress not only the importance of the Mass, but also the importance of devoting time to God.

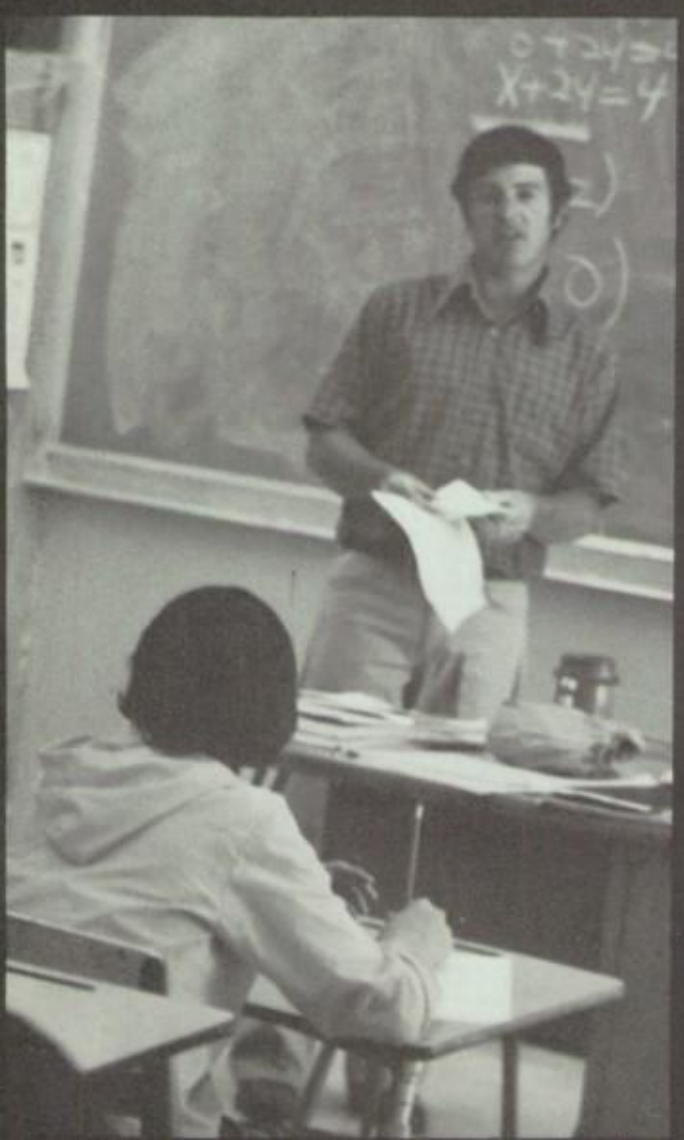
Students also get involved through Christian Service. Christian Service is a graduation requirement. Each student needs to have a certain number of hours every year. Through this they give of their time and talents.

Math and.....

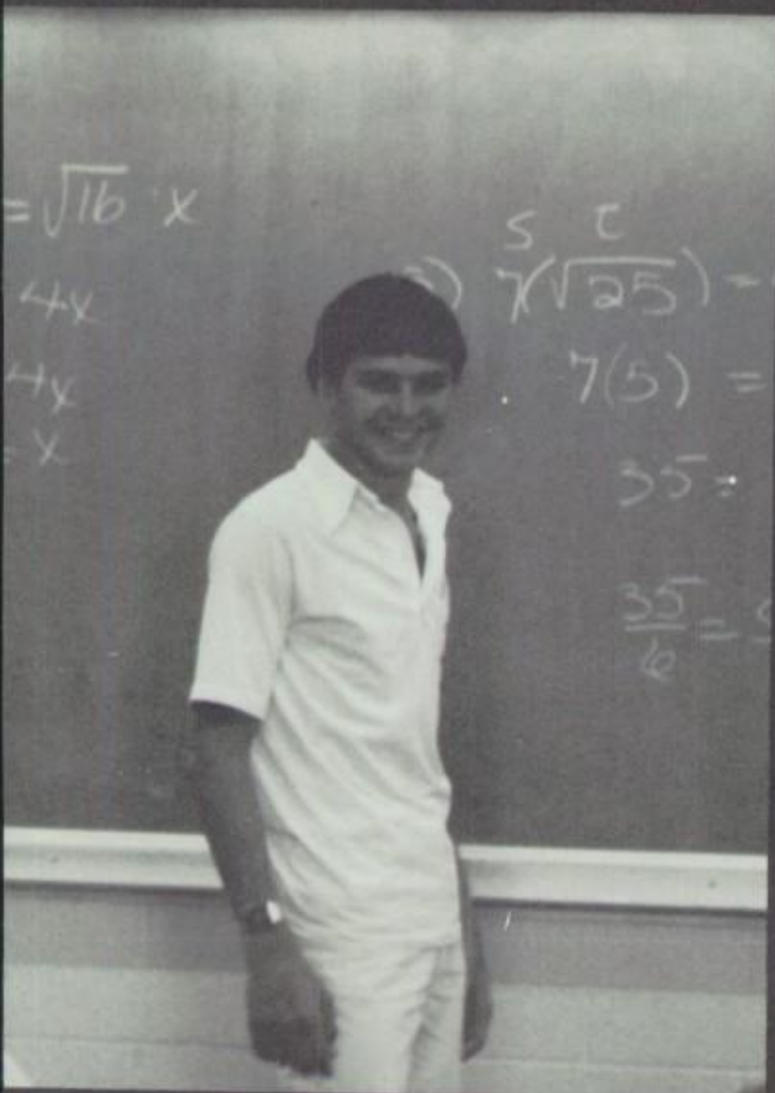


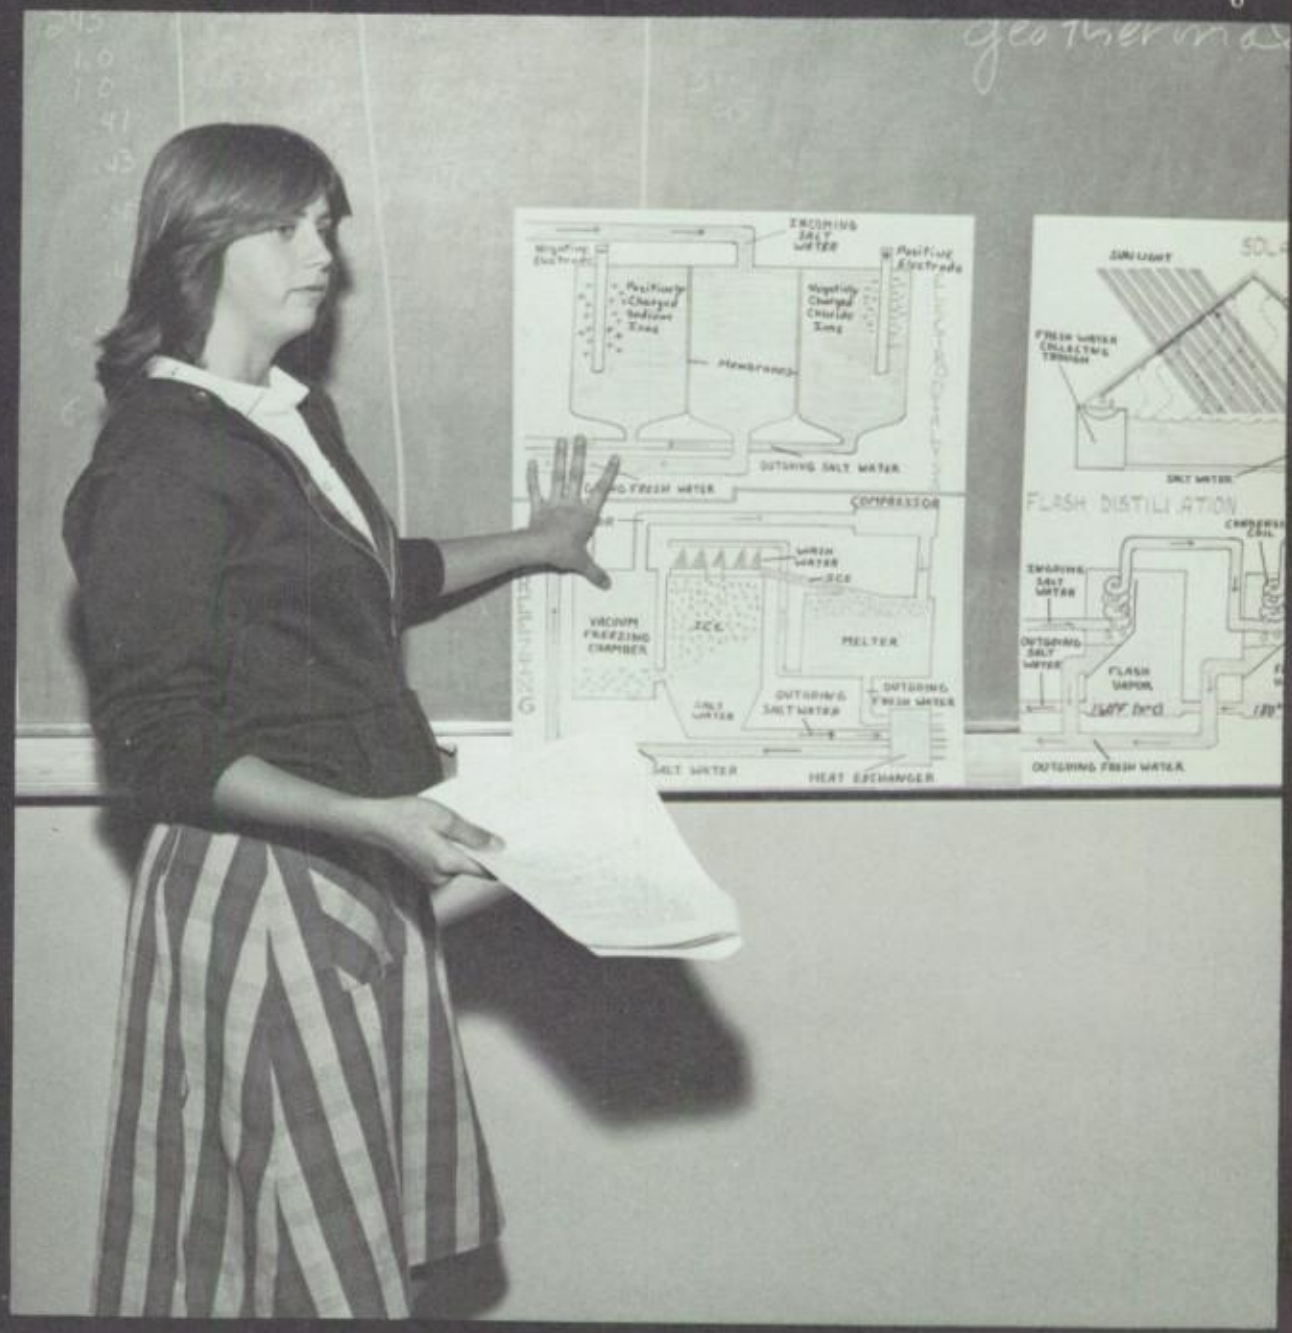


1. This is not a laughing matter.
2. Now, what are you doing?
3. It's been a long day.
4. Fascinating, simply fascinating.



Science





The subjects of Math and Science are similar in that they deal with fact, logic and calculation. There is a variety of science studies offered at Gerard such as Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Advanced Biology. The different courses of math that are offered are Title I, Essentials of Math, introduction to Algebra, Algebra I, Algebra II/Trigonometry, Algebra II, Geometry, Trigonometry-Analytical Geometry and Calculus. It is the aim of Gerard to teach, not only the basic principles of Math and Science, but to also offer higher levels of these subjects to interested and capable students.

Spanish

ank Villar and other Spanish Students participated in the Spanish Mass.

The Foreign Language Department tries to first of all help the students acquire an accurate working knowledge of the language. Language students also study the culture, customs, and ways of life of the people whose language they are studying. By the thorough education they receive, they are able to gain a better understanding of their own language and culture.

They do this not only by means of education in a classroom, but also in extra activities. The fourth year Spanish Class not only has cooking parties, Christmas Caroling, and the annual Spanish Play, but also are involved in the Spanish Mass that is celebrated each year in commemoration of Our Lady of Guadalupe. This year the whole school attended. Another outing they had was their trip to Puerto Vallarta. Here the students received first-hand information. They not only had fun lying on the beach, but were also able to see their churches and other cultural attractions. Another thing they did while they were there was to go on a cruise for an afternoon. While doing all this they were able to meet new people and practice their language with them. This was all very worthwhile, because, as you know, it is no good to know a language if you are not able to speak it with others.

BUSINESS

Time Out!

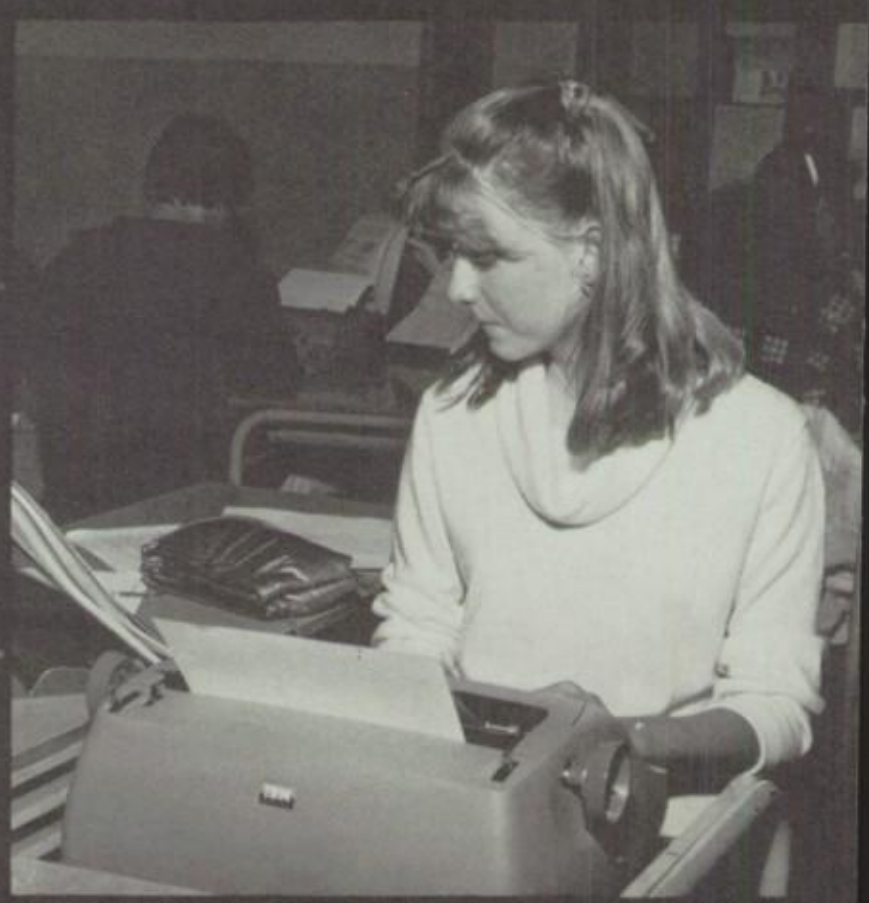
I think we've got it now fellas. Thanks.

If they could see me now!

Concentration isn't always easy.



ENGLISH HISTORY

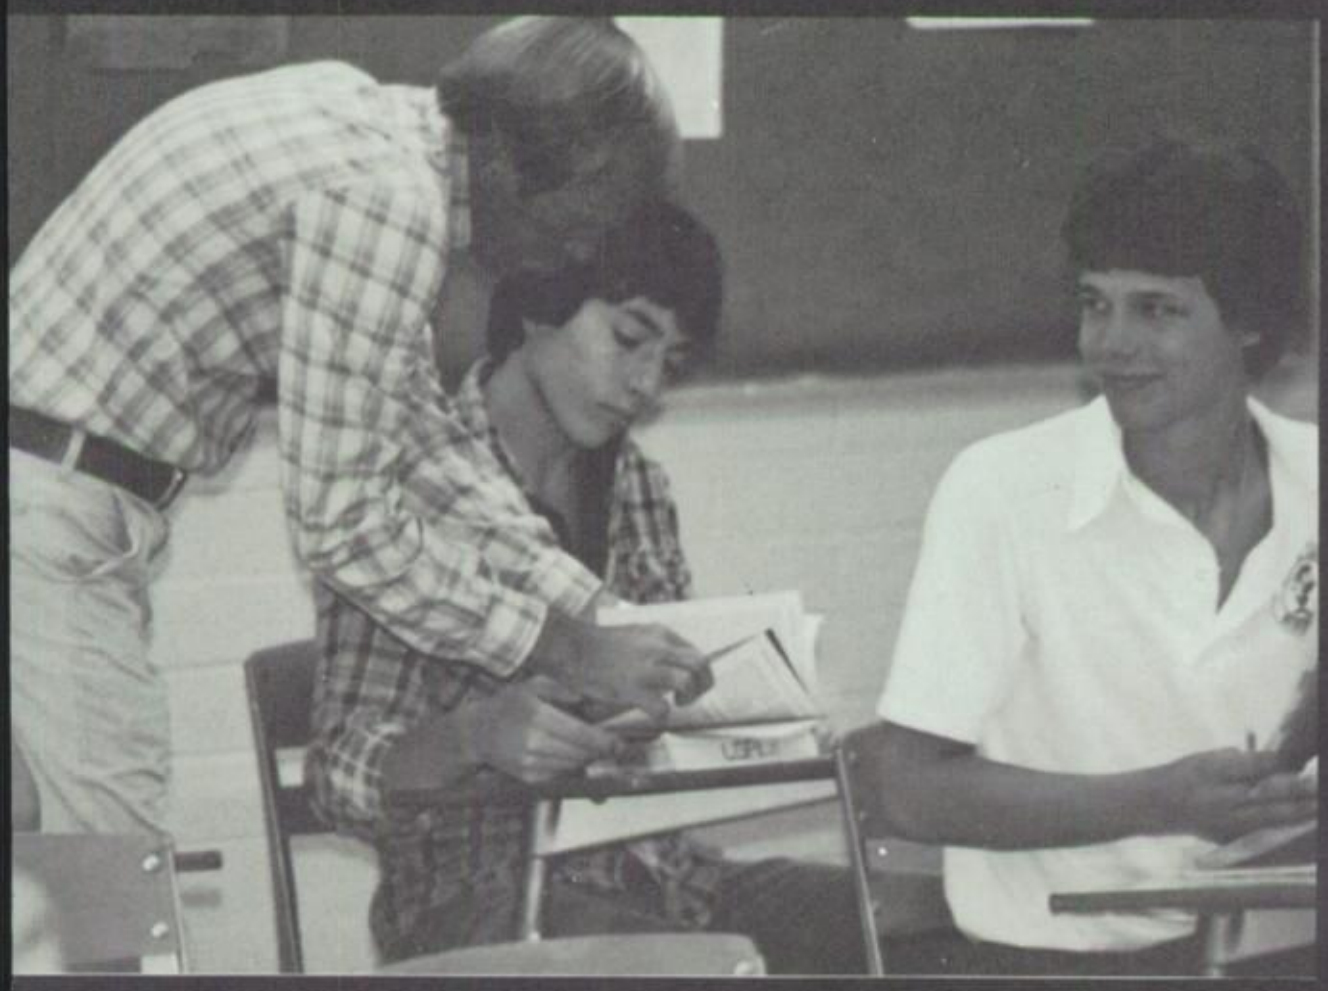
There are three years of history classes required here at Gerard. Sophomore year Arizona History and World Geography and Junior year American History are studied. Finally, in the Senior year the students learn about American Government, Economics and Free Enterprise.

It is said that history repeats itself. Therefore, it is very important to study what has happened in the past so that the bad times may be prevented in the future.

English classes cover just about everything from basic grammar and puntuation to term papers and book reports. They give students the opportunity not only to learn the basics, but also to develop their own individual interests and talents.

Don't take it so seriously, guys.

Business courses are also offered. Although they can be a lot of work, the rewards are great. Learning business skills gives a person a feeling of confidence and independence. They prepare him for every day things like balancing a checkbook. It may also help in other classes where typing papers is required.



If you listened the first time, you would know what to do.

Ask a silly question; get a silly answer.

Fine Arts

Now look what you made me do.

Only desert candy can survive this heat.

Bon Appétit!

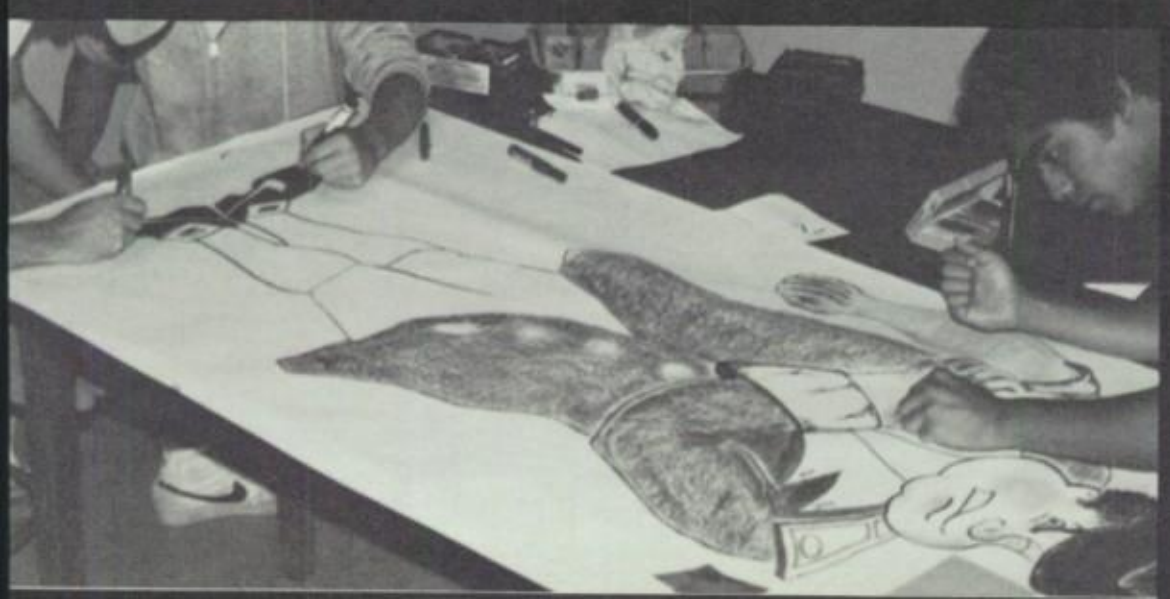
Remember the good old days?

Little, but mighty!

Who am I? Where am I? What am I?

Quiet! Artists at work.

Redcoats, we're hopelessly devoted to you.



This year's band did exceptionally well despite their small size. Everywhere you went, games, assemblies, celebrations, graduation they were there cheering us on.

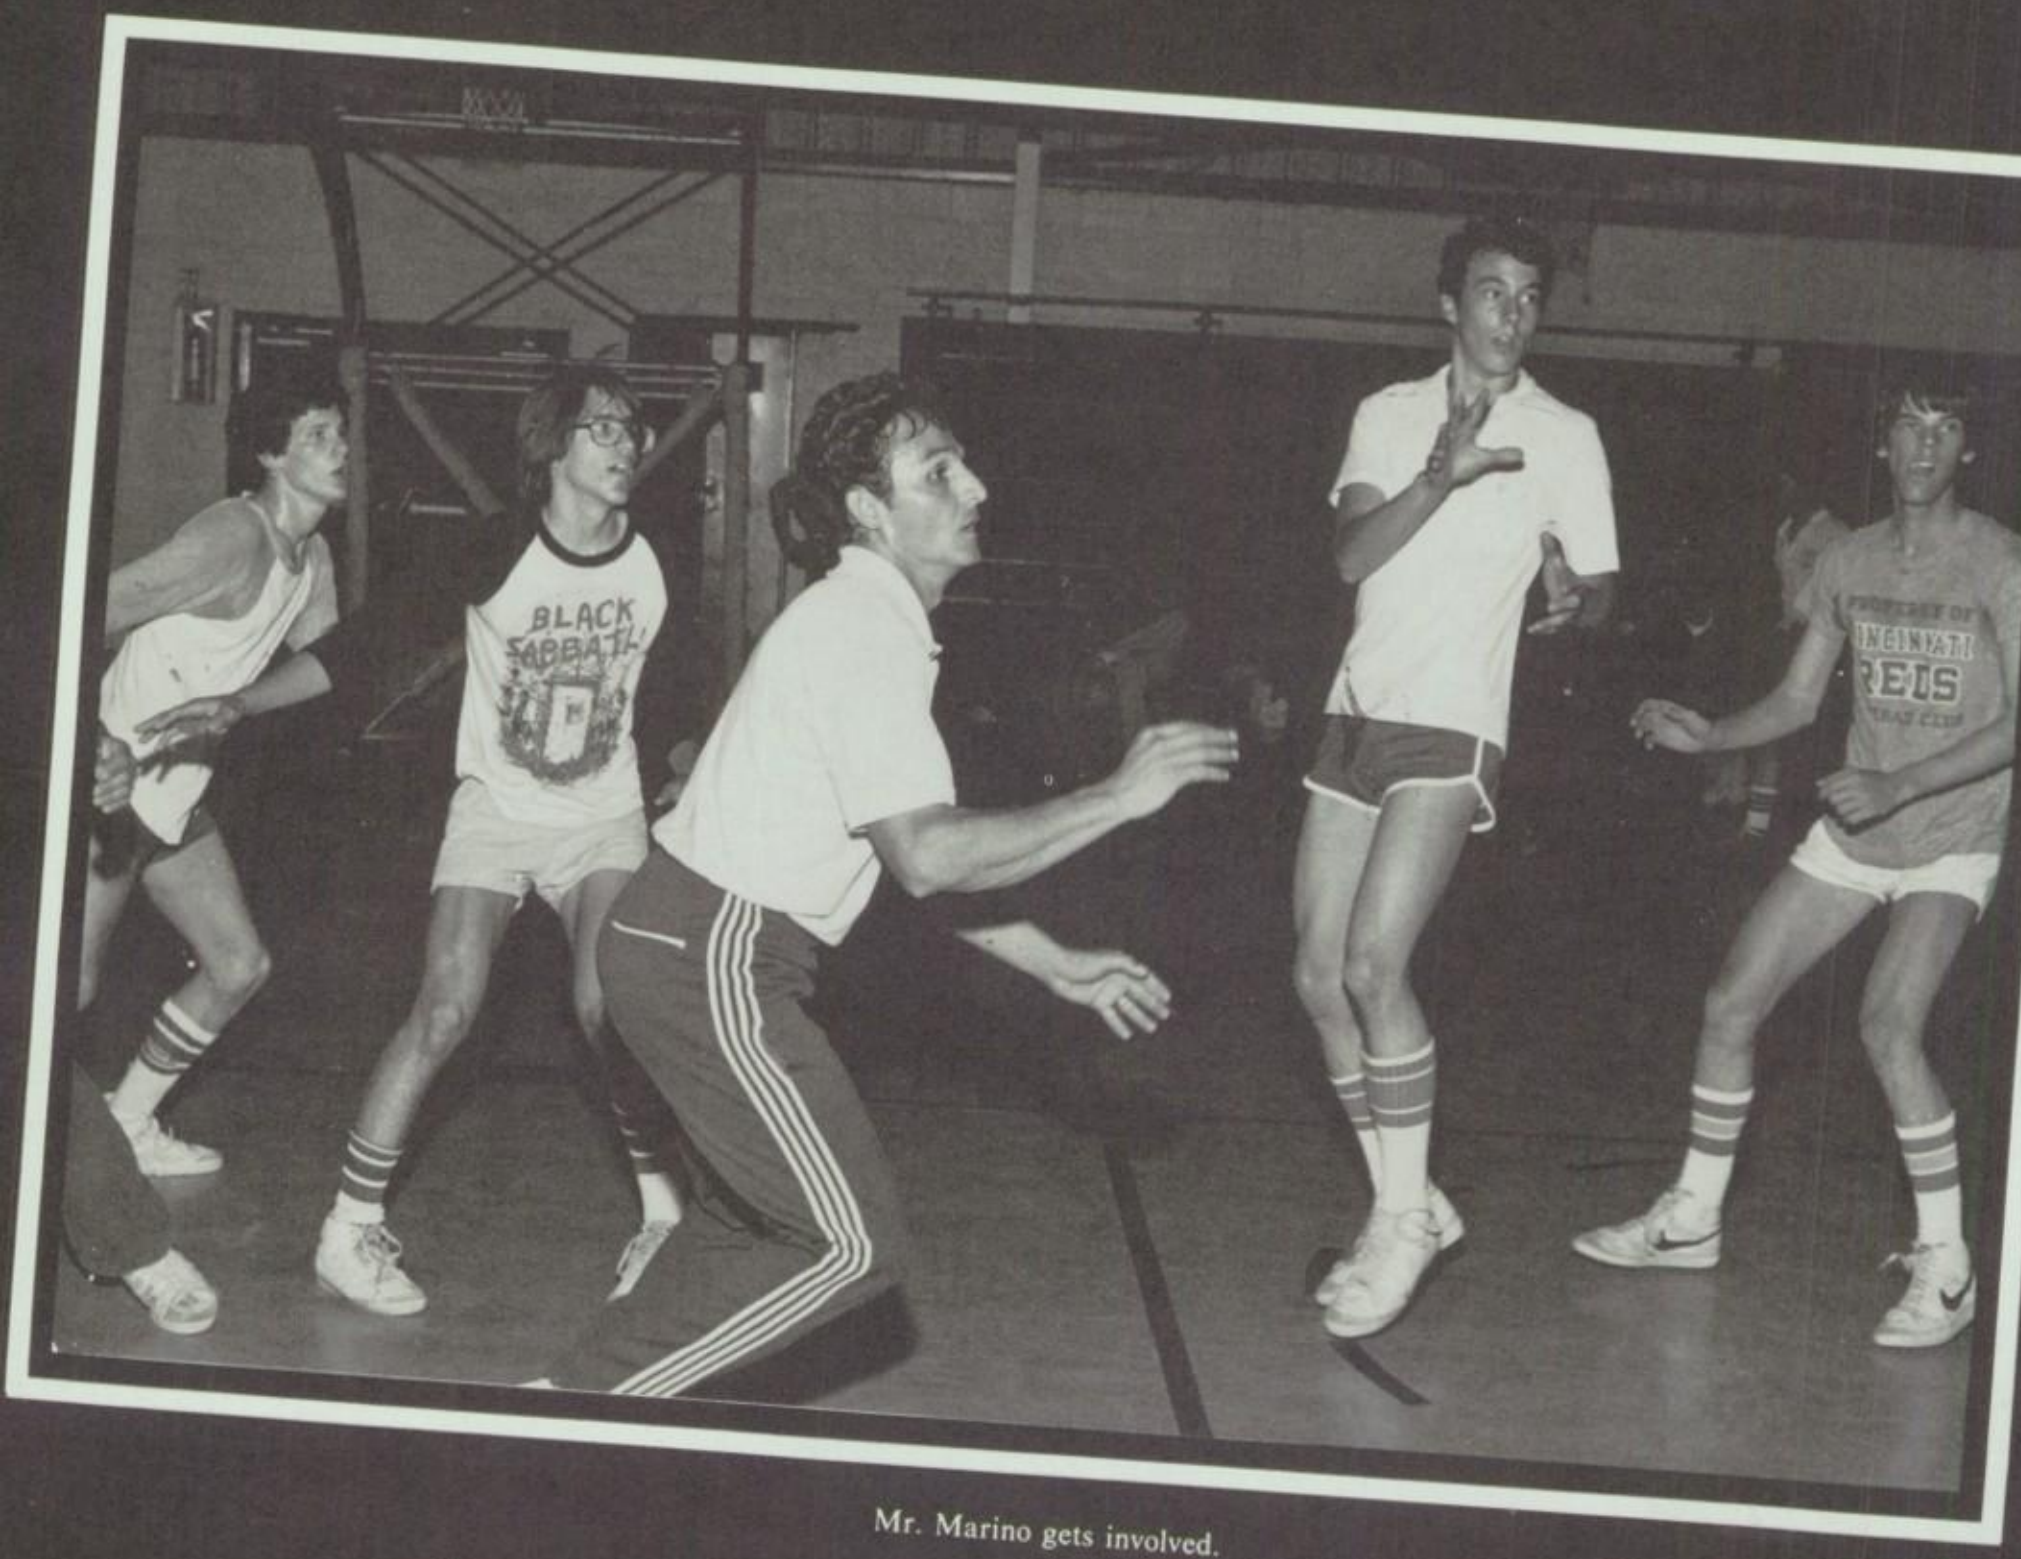
The choir this year was also small, but, there was a lot of individual talent. This was apparent by the quality of their public performances.

The Art Department and Home Economics classes contributed their part in developing other skills in Gerard students. Art is a specialty field where innate talent can be trained and disciplined. Home Economics students learn first hand that what moms make look so easy has its difficult moments!

Here at Gerard there are many talents. The Fine Arts Department is in the business of developing these. Examples of good sportsmanship and school spirit are lead by those who are out in front, but they are radiated by the people behind the scenes.

The Band and Choir are parts of this department that are out in front. Their example is radiated by the student body. It is in classes like Art and Home Economics that this spirit is developed and enhanced. This is what makes Gerard the great school it is.

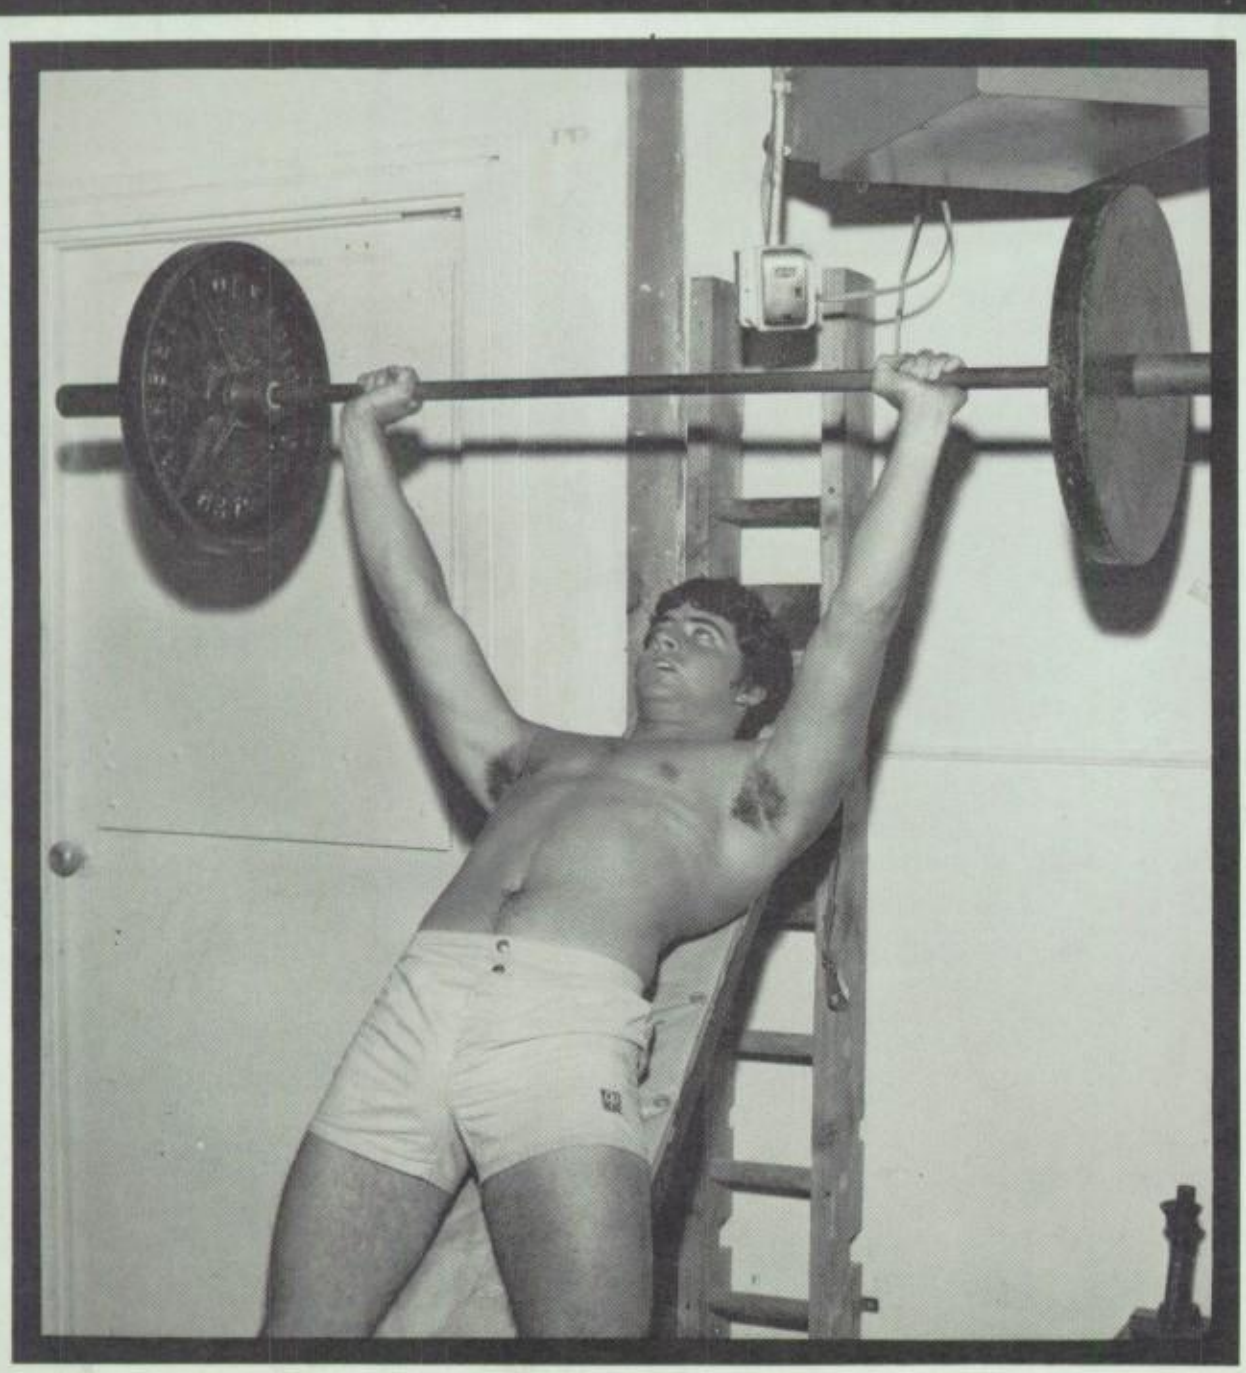
Look! It's the Boogie Woogie Bugle Boys.



Mr. Marino gets involved.

No pain, no gain.

Reach for the stars.



The Physical Education program at Gerard tries to harmonize the basic aims of all education. The main purpose is to help each person develop all his inborn abilities to the fullest. It also helps them to look and feel better about themselves.

This years' Physical Education classes have offered a variety of different activities. Throughout the year students have participated in football, basketball, volleyball, soccer, gymnastics, weight lifting, track, baseball and even aerobics. The students who participated in these not only learned a lot, but they also had a lot of fun.

Another achievement which helped aid in making P.E. more enjoyable was the new locker rooms. These provided quicker and more convenient means of changing and getting ready for the next class.

OH SHINING KNIGHT

His shining armor, now battered and rusty,
His white horse, now dull and gray,
That mighty steed, so fearless and trusty,
Became spooked and threw him astray.

Oh, those knights who live by the sword,
Against another he would be outspoken.
To fight another battle he could not afford,
For the weapon he carries is now broken.

The battle begun,
The knight unarmed;
Will he retreat, or
Just be alarmed?

Neither.
That Knight, so battered and gray,
Will not give up the battle,
Not even today.

Redcoats Persevere

The Football season was a hard one for the Varsity Team to endure and persevere through; yet they did. "It was a learning experience . . . I was proud that nobody quit."

— Bill Gore

The Gerard '81-'82 Varsity Football Team was a tribute to the true Gerard spirit — the spirit of pride. A winning record was not so much an indication of this pride as the aggressive and positive attitude exerted every game.

The team suffered key injuries this year, and played teams that were much larger in number and in size; yet, they gave each team a good fight.

It is said that a crisis pulls a family toether, and this season helped bind the Gerard Family in unity. The team had a record of 1-8-1. They tied Peoria 6-6; and, in a thrilling Homecoming game, they tarred the feathers of the Bourgade Eagles with a 10-0 victory!

The Cross Country team unquestionably put its best foot forward this season, placing fourth in their division. There was, however, more that attributed to their success than just skill, although the team had an abundant amount of that dexterity. The members of the team worked together, encouraged and helped one another. Mr. Austin, the Cross Country Coach, said that the young runners showed a lot of promise, which was illustrated by the good workouts and the great outcome of the season.

The girls worked hard all season and made a great deal of improvement as they progressed. Outstanding team performances were turned in against division opponents, Gilbert and Corona del Sol, resulting in impressive victories over those two teams.

Receiving recognition for their performance during the season were Carey Hyler, Bridgette Moya and Denise Calcagno, who were voted to the Second Team All-Division Squad by the Conference Coaches. Receiving All-Division Honorable Mention Awards were Karen Knudsen and Lisa Jankovsky.

The Junior Varsity Volleyball Team had an overall record of 6 wins and 8 losses. The team, however, put forth a supreme effort each game, and most of the matches were close. The team developed good skills, which will benefit them in the future. Coach Dreffs spent long hours with the team and feels they will have a good season next year.

Players Shoot for Achievements

The J.V. Girls Basketball Team had an overall record of 5 and 9. They worked hard every game, not just one or two. Even though they lost in double overtime in the games against Mingus and Globe, they made the opposing teams work for their wins.

The team also had a special closeness and each looked out for the other. Throughout the season, they helped each other to try and reach their full potential.

The team was coached by Jan Dreffs, who stated that "the team hustled and worked hard all year."

4. Natalie outruns Mingus' defense. 5. Donna scores two.

Varsity Players Light Up the Scoreboard

With only three seniors (Denise Calcagno, Donna Baker, and Debbie DeJulia), the team lacked the proper experience to be a dominating force in a very tough conference. With all these factors forced upon them, the girls seemed to draw a little closer together.

Gerard can be proud of the determination that the girls showed during each one of the games. This determination was evident in the progress that was attained as the year came to a close. In the last two weeks, the Varsity 'Coats beat Globe in an away game and Bourgade at home. The Globe game was a big one because we had never beaten the Tigers at Globe in the last five years.

The victories over Glove and Bourgade were a twist in faith because we tied for third, which placed us in the same category as Mingus, the number one team. In the first round of the Divisionals, the 'Coats played Globe in a tremendous battle in which two overtimes were taken before the Tigers from Globe defeated Gerard.

Redcoats Advance to STATE Quarter Finals

The Varsity Basketball Team was led by captains Doug Bradley and Steve Kmetko. They finished the season accumulating an overall record of 17-7. Doug Bradley led the team in points and rebounds per game — 18 and 9 respectively. Steve Kmetko was the floor leader and led the team in assists.

The team opened the season with a win over Independence (76-65). From there they went on to beat Cactus (62-59) and Dysart (78-52).

In the first game of the Cactus Tournament they lost to AAA Agua Fria (41-71). They eventually placed third in the Cactus Classic after the team beat Dysart (70-45) and Mingus (76-64).

After the Tournament, the team went on to win their next five games before losing to Gilbert (63-64) because of a last second shot made by the Tigers. For a time, the team ran into shakey ground. They beat Bourgade (68-45), Globe (57-43), but lost to Corona (59-83), Mingus (58-62) and again to Gilbert by a point (75-76).

The team finished their regular season by winning their next three games. They beat Bourgade (86-49), Globe (57-54), and avenged an earlier loss by beating Corona (51-50) which was the Aztecs only Division loss.

In the Divisional Tournament the Redcoats crushed the Eagles (63-38). They then played Mingus, beating them (43-41) after coming back from an eight point deficit. The team finished second in the Divisional Tournament after a loss to Corona (55-67).

The team then went down to Nogales where they played in the Quarter Finals, losing to Nogales (96-73). The Redcoats had a tremendous season and went a long way. They finished as one of the top eight AA teams in Arizona.

All the players did a fine job, and Victor Candelaria, Brian Kmetko, and Craig Fylling were awarded as the Outstanding Players of the Year. As the season went on, relationships grew and their team spirit was high.

Coach Stone quoted, "The team was long on hustle and desire. I thought the kids did a good job overall. We improved from game to game."

This year's Freshman Basketball Team proved themselves to be one of the top teams in the division. Although they started slowly as a team, they showed great tenacity and by the season's end, had defeated all league opponents at least once. They proved themselves capable of accomplishing a great deal with their "team first" attitude and with their continued hard work and dedication, will be a force to be reckoned with in the league in the next three years.

GERARD

This year in track everyone did an outstanding job. Monica Jullian, a senior, set a school record. She placed 1st in division for shotput and second in her division for discus. Monica went to State and took second place in the shotput. Our 1600 meter girls' relay team — Carol Mitchel, Natalie King, Carol Hahn and Carey Hyler — placed 4th in the Divisional Meet and placed in the State Meet. The 400 meter relay team — Carol Mitchell, Natalie King, Suzy Gilb and Karen Holland — placed second in the Divisional Meet. Natalie King ran the 100 and 200 meter and placed 4th in the Divisionals and qualified for State. Carey Hyler placed 2nd in the Divisional Meet in the long jump; she also qualified for State. Sharon Kenney, a senior, took 3rd place in the Divisionals in long jump and qualified for State.

The boys' 400 meter and 1600 meter relay team did well also. The relay team consisted of four runners — Paul Briel, B. J. Krystek, Joe Gaudio and Brian Hughes. They qualified 3rd in their division and placed in State. Brian Hughes placed 4th in the long jump at the Divisionals. Paul Briel placed 4th in the Divisionals in the 400 meter and finished third in State. With so many outstanding members in all areas returning next year, Coach Relph feels, "We have a very good team and prospects for the future."

This year's Golf Team started out with a lot of hardships, but with a bit of effort, they managed to learn about the game of golf. "We started out kind of shaky, but this year prepared us, and with dedication over the summer, we plan to take divisionals next year," says Jeff Miller. The Golf Team consists of 7 members, including Coach Curran. The members are: captain, Dominic Maietta, Most Valuable Golfer: Tom Charbonneau, Most Improved Golfer: Tony Filler, Returning Lettermen: Jeff Miller and Vince Calcagno, along with newcomer Cameron Wright. The team ranked third in divisionals, eighth in state and sixth at the Oak Creek Invitational Tournament.

Varsity Cheer Promotes Spirit

One of the driving forces behind the pride and spirit of our teams is the seemingly unending effort put forth by our Varsity Cheerleaders and Mascots. From the painting of posters to the many practices in the blazing sun, they show their pride in our school by working hard at what they do. The girls show us that they care about our school and all of its people.

J.V. Promotes Enthusiasm

J.V. Cheer was a fine example of hard work. Standing in front of small crowds on the field or on the court and promoting spirit and good cheer was all a part of their day. Their voices strained was just one of the prices they paid for promoting our spirit. Julie Angulo, the J.V. Cheer captain, led the team in their fine display of the Gerard spirit.

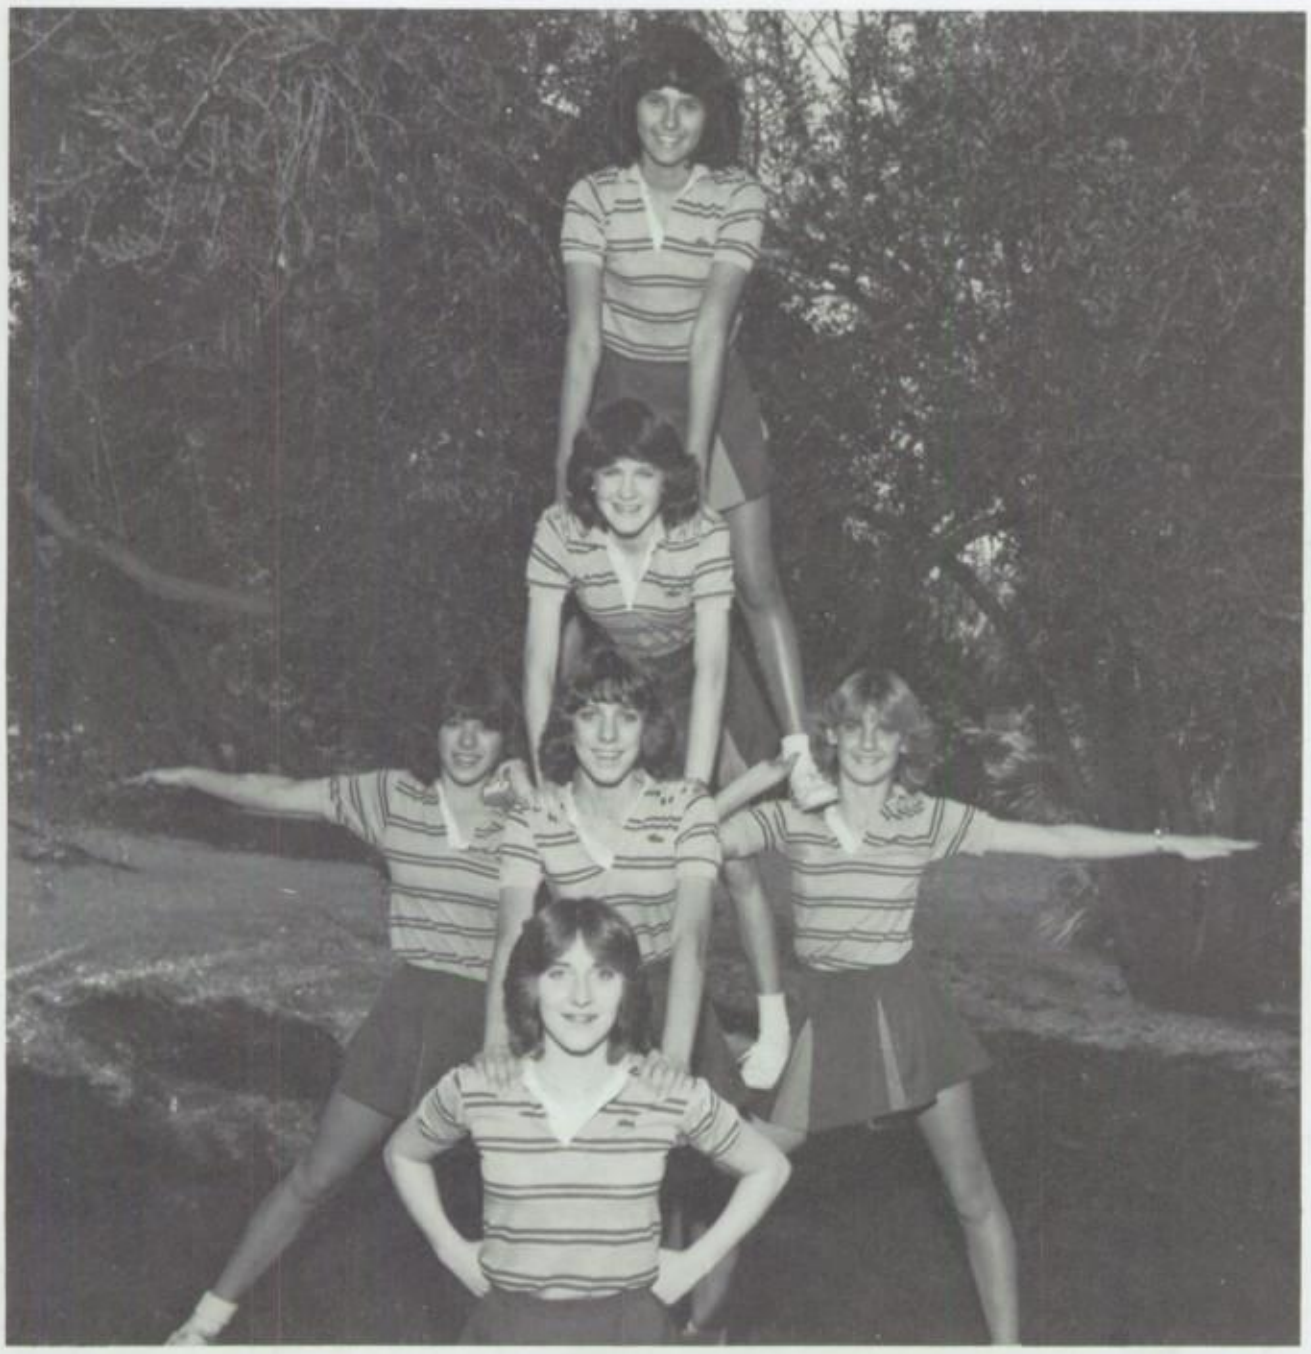
Frosh Support Team



Freshmen have many fears when they first begin high school. Arriving at Gerard and cheering in front of a crowd was an unimaginable idea for most. However, as each group of young frosh come to Gerard a small set of six stand up and cheer for the courageous freshmen guys on the court and on the field. The girls have worked long and hard all year. They have grown in their relationships and skills, and they are looking forward to next year.

Pom Performance Highlights Half-Time

The Varsity Pom line did a great job in performing the routines which they had worked hard all year to perfect. The afternoon practices each day and the sharing of ideas made each routine unique and well learned. The line was led by Alana Getz and moderated by Mrs. Dertina. The relationships grew as the girls helped one another making it a very good year.

J.V. Pom was led this year by Suzanne Monthofer. The girls spent a vigorous year with the creation of routines in the span of only a few days and with the breaking down of the buses which carried them to and from the games, but they were always successful in the display of their routines at the half-times of the J.V. games. Although it was a difficult year, the girls learned the importance of team-work and of developing good relationships with the rest of their line.

The girls are looking forward to next year and are excited about starting again.

"Being in Wrestlerettes was probably the best thing I've ever done. I got to meet and get close to a lot of people."

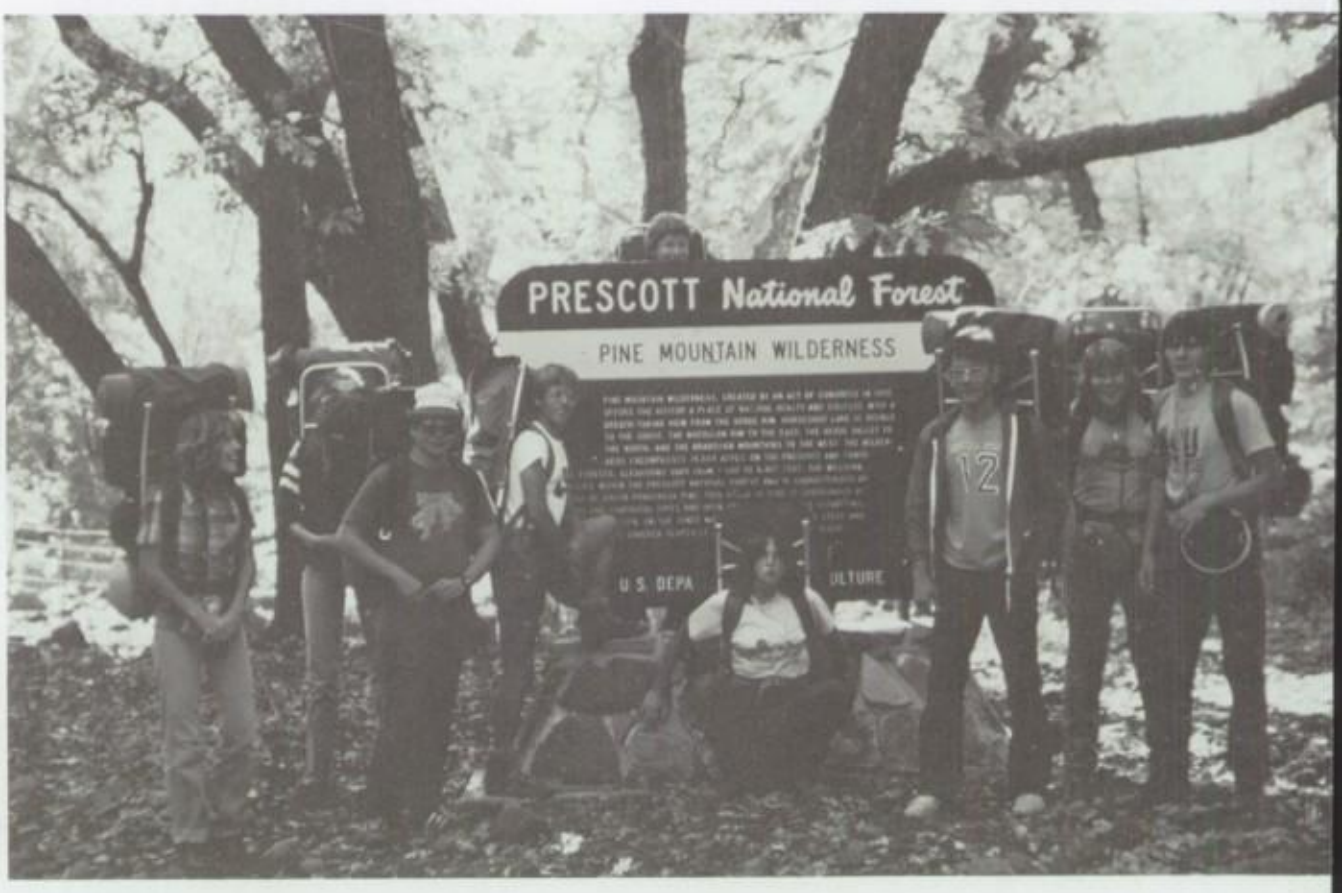
Under the astute guidance of Mr. Acedo, Student Council became an even greater force for energizing and directing the Student Body. Each member was hard-working, active and dedicated. The various class officers worked together to plan and raise money for events such as the 20th Anniversary Celebration, Prom, Coronation, Homecoming, Anytown, Girl's State, Boy's State and the Senior Brunch. Although each class sponsored individual activities, the rest of the student body, through the guidance of their officers, co-operated and responded, making each event a success. The good example of the unity in Student Council helped increase the unity of Gerard as a whole. It was a great year!

Roughin' It



The Backpacking Club has gone on three trips this year. Led by Mr. McGehee, the club went to Pine Mountain in the fall. Later in the winter, it went to the Superstitions. Mr. McGehee then left Gerard to work for the Arizona Game and Fish Department. Mr. Acedo then led part of the group to Oak Creek Canyon. The club really got back to nature and had a very enjoyable year under the leadership of president, Tom Suriano and vice-president, Gary Peloso.

Since there aren't any Journalism classes offered at Gerard, all work done on the paper is done outside the regular school schedule. The staff is composed of students from all four grades. Some receive a credit in Journalism, and others are on a non-credit program.

The Newspaper tries to keep the students, as well as the parents, informed about the education, religious, athletic, social, and cultural activities currently on the campus.

Mr. White hopefully states, "We would eventually like to go to the Band Day at A.S.U. and U. of A. if we can get enough members. I consider everyone who joins the band to be an outstanding member, although none proved to be more outstanding than another." This year's Youth for Life goal was to pass a human life amendment to the U. S. Constitution which would protect human life in all stages.

Informing the public on the facts of abortion, they had a booth at the Arizona State Fair and spoke at different high schools and organizations. Their concern, however, is for all human life — not just the unborn. No matter what disabilities people have, they want to help.

The president for the Gerard Chapter of Youth for Life was Deby Fimbres. Active members were Trisha Novascone, Liz Sanders, Gina Phillips.

Drama Explodes onto the Scene with Charlie Brown

Gerard High School's Drama Club put on a gallant effort into rebuilding its reputation. Under the guidance of the hard-working officers — president, Laura Petrola, vice-president, Sue Sikora, secretary, Jim Relph, treasurer, Nancy Richardson and moderator, Mr. Henry Acedo — plus the hard-working members, Drama Club put on a M & M sale which made over $500.00, the Bun-O-Gram sale at Easter which made $113.00 and put on a first rate production of "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown," which was directed by an alumnus, Matt Otayiano.

"Drama is the only place you can ham it up, make someone else happy, and still be yourself," says Jim Relph.

Drama Club had a very good year and will have an even better one next year.

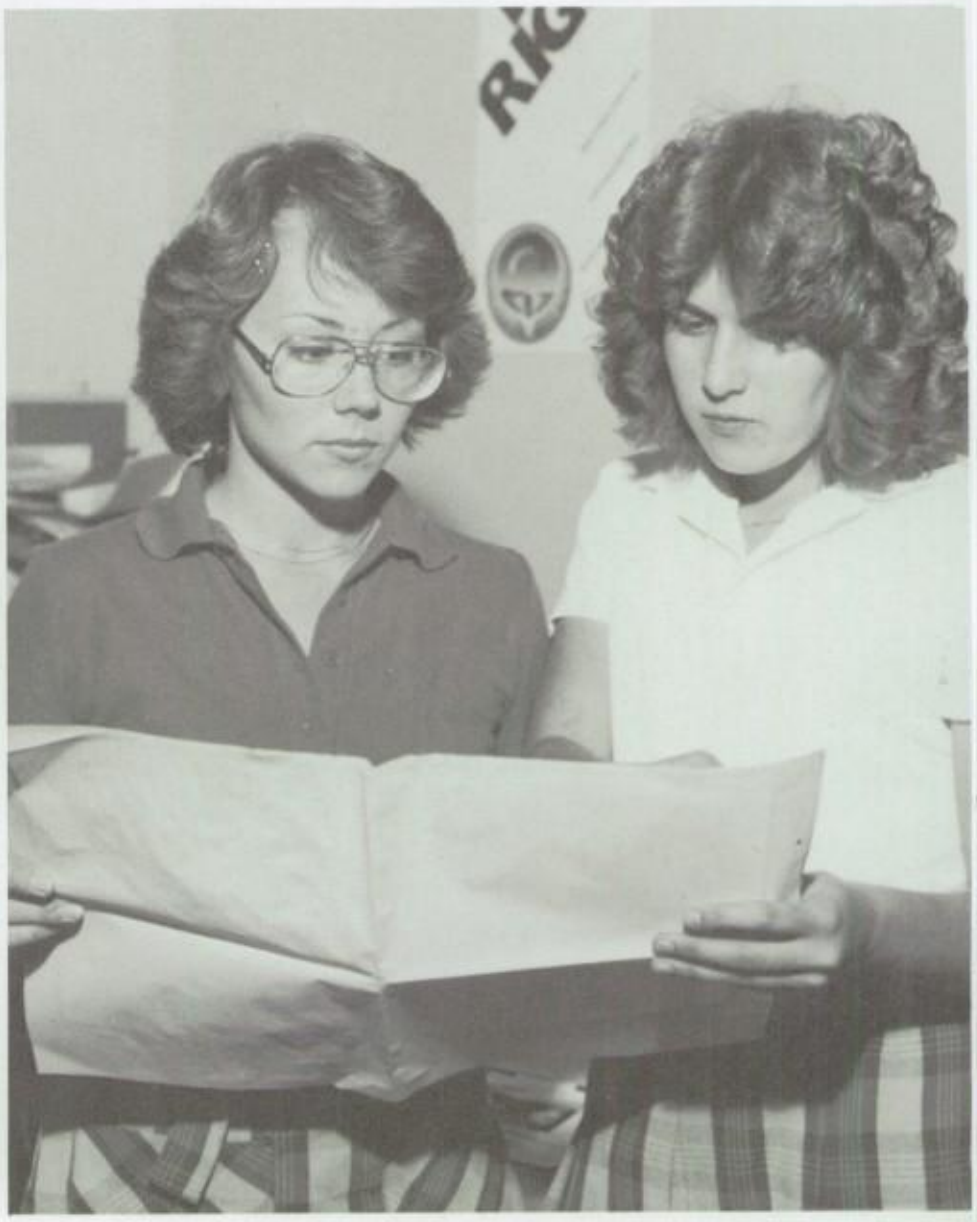
Yearbook Staff Works Hard to Keep Memories Alive

1



It took a lot of effort and talent to make this year's IMAGE a first rate book. Moderated by Mr. Andorfer and guided by editor Beth Johnson, the yearbook staff tried to accomplish every duty that goes into producing a yearbook. There were deadlines that needed to be met, pictures that had to be taken, and layouts which needed to be drawn up. The staff had to make many sacrifices which included staying after school each day and coming in on holidays. There was a lot of work to be done and not many people to do it. The small staff this year had a responsibility to produce a book that would represent Gerard and keep memories alive.

Community Life

One night I had a dream.
I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord,
and across the sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand —
one belonged to me, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of my life flashed before us,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that many times along the path of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times of my life. . .
This really bothered me, and I questioned the Lord about it.

"Lord, You have said that once I decided to follow You,
You would walk with me all the way; but I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, in times when I needed
You most, You would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never, never leave you during your time of trial and suffering.
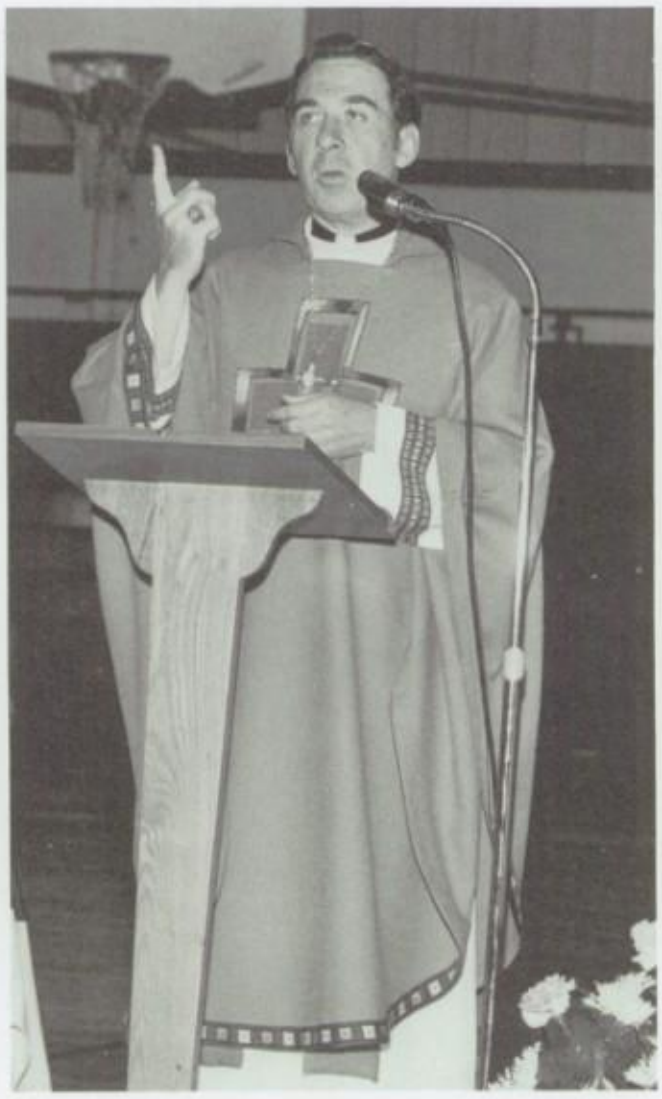
When you see only one set of footprints,
it is then that I carried you."

BISHOP HONORS REDCOATS WITH INITIAL VISIT

"Short is in these days."



"Be proud of the fact that we are Christians . . . "

"Your're O.K."

The 1981-82 school year proved to be a blossoming one for the relationship between Gerard Catholic and Bishop Thomas J. O'Brien.

Faculty member Fr. John Ebbesmier along with Ted Burr, John Mudd, Mike Dearing attended the Bishop's ordination in Rome, where they received an audience with Pope John Paul II.

Eight Gerard sophomores worked long hours setting up for the Bishop's installation at the ASU Activity Center in January. They, along with Mr. Henry Acedo, were rewarded for their efforts by a luncheon sponsored by Bishop O'Brien.

The Bishop honored Gerard by saying mass on St. Patrick's Day. This was his first visit to a diocesan high school. During his sermon, he proclaimed that "faith is really no good unless we work at it."

Finally, our 20th Anniversary celebration was also blessed by Bishop O'Brien, who showed the Redcoats his continued interest.

Dear Members of Gerard High School:

I am pleased to be able to address you through the publication of your Yearbook, the "Image" with this year's theme being "Memories of Caring and Sharing".

No doubt as you reflect on this past year at Gerard there will be various memories brought to your mind. But what will always be among your best memories are those in which you cared and shared yourself with others. We are reminded of Jesus, the One who cared and shared Himself with us. I hope such occasions will not be just part of your memories but a part of your active life. Care and share yourself with others.

Stay close to the Lord and His Church. And may the Lord bless and guide you always.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

LOVE IS STILL SACRED

The sunset on the beach:
soft, quiet and sweet.
The waves slapping in momentous joy,
following a pattern God demanded.
We, sitting to pass the time,
enjoyed each other's company.
And, not to be forsaken, fall —
fall into the moment.
A lot may happen
and eyes may meet.
But, best of all,
when it is time to depart,
We are best of friends
and love is still sacred.

— by Jim Relph

I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being let me do it
now. Let me not defer or neglect it. For I shall not pass
this way again.

—God's very best to you in life

Dear Senior Class of '82

We diapered your britches
And bandaged your knees
We pushed and we prodded
And wiped every sneeze
We loved you and helped you
The best that we knew
Your futures beginning
It's now up to you.

Yearbook Editor '82

The year is completed — the games have been played; the classes have been taken; the friends have been made and the once mysterious future is now the familiar past. The 1981-82 IMAGE staff thanks you for your participation in our lives and in our school for, without your activeness, participation and growth, these memories would not have been made.
